I. INTRODUCTION

The Unified Judicial System’s magisterial district courts are among the busiest in the state with a diverse caseload. The Magisterial District Judge Bench Book is structured as a practical reference guide covering the broad range of legal issues encountered by magisterial district judges (MDJs).

This bench book is the latest link in a chain of publications designed to help frontline judiciary that stretches at least as far back to the advent of the printing press. One author noted that as early as the 1500s, English printers were publishing quick-study guides designed to turn country gentlemen into justices of the peace.¹ Although the country gentleman has long since been replaced by a diverse, educated, democratically elected pool of judges, due to the ever-expanding, increasingly complex jurisdiction of the magisterial district courts, the need for guidance remains.

Staff from the Administrative Office of the Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC), with guidance from the Special Court Judges Association’s Publications Committee, created this bench book. Its content has been reviewed by the Association's leadership team and by the members of the Publications Committee.

The bench book contains the procedures for handling the various case types heard in the magisterial district courts. Each chapter is comprised of explanatory text about a specific case type and a detailed checklist(s) of the procedures to be followed by MDJs. The checklist(s) are located on the left side of the page, and the statutory authorities are listed on the right side. Some rules and statutes are quoted verbatim while others are paraphrased. Also on the right side are explanatory notes, which are intended to provide additional background or guidance.

Included in the bench book are sample procedures, colloquies, and oaths. These sample procedures are suggestions only. The bench book also provides the procedures governing the appointment of court interpreters, and a glossary of terms.

This bench book, while providing authoritative information, is intended to be used in conjunction with the applicable statutes, case law, and procedural rules governing proceedings before MDJs. A perceived conflict between the information contained in the bench book and any constitutional provision, statute, or rule of procedure should be resolved in favor of the provision, statute, or rule.

Points of view expressed herein are those of the authors, and do not necessarily represent any official position, policy, or view of the Pennsylvania judiciary, nor should they be considered legal advice. Although every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information contained herein, the AOPC does not assume any liability for errors or omissions.

This bench book is current as of January 2022. Its contents will be updated periodically. Readers are encouraged to regularly check the Magisterial District Judge Bench Book posted on the Minor Judiciary Education Board extranet site to ensure that you are consulting the most current version.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

A. INTRODUCTION

1. Jurisdiction

There are two types of jurisdiction: jurisdiction over subject matter and jurisdiction over persons. McGinley v. Scott, 164 A.2d 424, 427 (Pa. 1960). Personal jurisdiction is the power of a court to render judgment against a party. Bancorp Group, Inc. v. Pirgos, Inc., 744 A.2d 791, 792 (Pa. Super. 2000). The courts of Pennsylvania may exercise personal jurisdiction over: individuals present or domiciled in Pennsylvania at the time process is served; corporations incorporated or qualified as a foreign corporation under Pennsylvania law or that conduct a continuous or systematic part of their business in Pennsylvania; or partnerships and similar entities that are formed or qualify as foreign entities under Pennsylvania law or that conduct a continuous or systematic part of their business in Pennsylvania. 42 Pa.C.S. § 5301.² In addition, individuals, corporations, partnerships, and similar entities may consent to jurisdiction. Id. The courts of Pennsylvania may, under certain circumstances, exercise jurisdiction over persons outside of Pennsylvania through the state's "long arm" statute, 42 Pa.C.S. § 5322.

Jurisdiction over the person is normally acquired by the court's process upon him/her within the territorial limits of its authority. McGinley, at 428. The process of the magisterial district judge (MDJ) shall extend beyond his/her magisterial district to the extent prescribed by general rule. 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(b). Methods of obtaining personal jurisdiction in particular proceedings by process are discussed in the specific sections dealing with those proceedings. Concepts of personal jurisdiction beyond process are outside the scope of this bench book.

² A federal court in In re Asbestos Liability Litigation, 384 F.Supp.3d 532 (E.D.Pa. 2019), has called into question the constitutionality of 42 Pa.C.S. § 5301 requiring that foreign corporations register to do business and consent to personal jurisdiction in Pennsylvania. Other courts, however, have disagreed with this conclusion. See e.g., Alcatel-Lucent v. Ametek, 441 F.Supp.3d 68 (E.D.Pa. 2020).

Subject matter jurisdiction relates to the authority of a court to hear and decide controversies of the general nature of the matter at issue and is conferred upon MDJ courts by statute in 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515. Subject matter jurisdiction may "never attach nor be acquired by consent or waiver of the parties." McGinley, 428. Subject matter jurisdiction is the type of jurisdiction discussed in this section.

2. Venue

Venue is the right of a party to have an action brought and heard in a particular judicial district or locality and is related to the convenience of the litigants. Commonwealth v. Bethea, 828 A.2d 1066, 1072 & 1074 (Pa. 2003); McGinley, 164 A.2d at 428. Unlike subject matter jurisdiction, venue may be waived. Id. Venue is primarily a procedural matter prescribed by the rules of court and it assumes the existence of jurisdiction. Bethea, 828 A.2d at 1074.

B. JURISDICTION

Except as prescribed by general rule adopted pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 503 (reassignment of matters), MDJs shall have jurisdiction over: summary offenses; landlord-tenant matters within the jurisdictional limits of an MDJ court; civil monetary claims not in excess of $12,000; preliminary arraignments, bail and warrants in criminal cases; certain driving under the influence matters; limited third degree misdemeanors; offenses under the Game and Fish Code; and any other matter where statute gives an MDJ jurisdiction. 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a). These categories are discussed in more detail in Checklist 2-1 below.

Checklist 2-1: MDJ Jurisdiction	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Summary offenses , except those that arise from the same episode or transaction involving a delinquent act for which a petition alleging delinquency has been filed under the Juvenile Act (42 Pa.C.S. § 6301 et seq.).	42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a)(1).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Landlord-tenant matters that are stated to be within the jurisdiction of an MDJ by the Landlord and Tenant Act of 1951 (68 P.S. § 250.101).	42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a)(2).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Civil claims , except claims against a Commonwealth party, where the amount demanded does not exceed	42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a)(3).

$12,000.00, exclusive of interest and costs for the following types of cases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> a. In assumpsit, except cases of real contract where title to the real estate may be in question; <input type="checkbox"/> b. In trespass, including all forms of trespass and trespass on the case; or <input type="checkbox"/> c. For fines and penalties by any government agency. Waiver of the portion of the claim over the jurisdictional limit. A plaintiff may waive a portion of his/her claim of more than $12,000 so as to bring it within the monetary jurisdiction of an MDJ. Such waiver will, however, be revoked automatically if the defendant appeals the MDJ's final order or when the judgment is set aside on certiorari. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> 4. To preside at preliminary arraignments, fix and accept bail (except offenses under 18 Pa.C.S. §§ 2502 (murder) and 2503 (voluntary manslaughter)), and to issue warrants in all criminal proceedings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> a. C. VENUE

Venue is a procedural matter generally prescribed by rules of court. Bethea, 828 A.2d at 1074; 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(b). The Rules of Civil Procedure for MDJs set forth the principles of venue for civil matters. The Rules of Criminal Procedure delineate venue in the criminal context.

III. CRIMINAL: GENERALLY

A. INTRODUCTION

The criminal offenses that an MDJ handles are divided into two broad categories: summary offenses (discussed in Section IV) and non-summary offenses, also referred to as court cases (discussed in Section V). Summary offenses are those that are designated as such under the Crimes Code or other statute, or that carry a potential term of imprisonment of not more than ninety (90) days. 18 Pa.C.S. § 106(c); Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. Court cases consist of murder (first, second, or third degree), felonies, and misdemeanors. 18 Pa.C.S. § 106(b); Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. This section discusses general criminal topics that may arise in either summary or court cases.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103(d)(2).

B. BUSINESS OF THE COURTS

This section examines the rules related to the general business of the court that may apply in either the summary or court case context. Topics include continuances, subpoenas, publicity, the case file and transcript, and similar topics. In addition to the rules themselves, the comments and explanatory reports may provide valuable information about the reasoning behind the rules. Although the comments and explanatory reports are not binding authority, courts may look to them for guidance.

Checklist 3-1: Business of the Courts	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Continuances. In the interest of justice, an MDJ may grant a continuance either upon motion of a party or upon the MDJ's own motion. The MDJ shall record on the transcript the moving party and the MDJ's reasons for granting or denying the continuance.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 106(A) & (B). Note: The contents of the transcript in a criminal case before an MDJ are discussed in Checklist 3-1(7).

A defendant's motion for a continuance shall be made no later than forty-eight (48) hours before the time set for the proceeding. A later motion shall be entertained only if the opportunity for making it did not previously exist, the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, or the interests of justice require it. When the continuance is granted, notice of the new date, time, and location shall be served on the parties.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 106(D). Pa.R.Crim.P. 106(E).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Subpoena contents. A subpoena in a criminal case shall order the witness named therein to appear before the court at the date, time, and place specified, and to bring any items identified or described in the subpoena. The subpoena shall also state on whose behalf the witness is called to testify and the identity, address, and phone number of the attorney, if any, who applied for the subpoena.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 107.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Discharge due to defects in form, content, or procedure. A defendant shall not be discharged nor a case dismissed because of a defect in the form or content of a complaint, citation, summons, or warrant, or a defect in the procedures prescribed by the Rules of Criminal Procedure, unless the defendant raises the defect before the conclusion of the trial (in a summary case) or before the conclusion of the preliminary hearing (in a court case) and the defect is prejudicial to the defendant's rights.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 109. Note: A complaint, citation, summons, or warrant may be amended at any time to remedy any defect in form or content that is not prejudicial to the defendant's rights. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 109. The prejudice to the defendant "must be beyond the inherent prejudice of being subject to criminal prosecution." Commonwealth v. Zook, 615 A.2d 1, 6 (Pa. 1992). The amendment is not prejudicial if the defendant has adequate notice of his/her alleged criminal conduct and adequate time to prepare for trial. Commonwealth v. Slick, 639 A.2d 482, 489 (Pa. Super. 1994), appeal denied, 649 A.2d 671 (Pa. 1994).
Any defect raised shall be specifically described on the docket. If the MDJ finds the defect to be prejudicial in a summary case, he/she shall record the decision on the docket as "discharge of the defendant" or "dismissal of the case" instead of "not guilty."	Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 109; see also Pa.R.Crim.P. 135 (discussed in Checklist 3-1(7) below).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Public discussion of pending or imminent criminal litigation by court personnel. All court personnel are	Pa.R.Crim.P. 111.

prohibited from disclosing to any person, without court permission, information relating to a pending criminal case that is not part of the public record of the court. Specifically prohibited is disclosure of information concerning arguments and hearings held in chambers or otherwise outside the presence of the public. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Public comment by MDJ. MDJs shall abstain from making a public statement that might reasonably be expected to affect the outcome or impair the fairness of a matter pending or impending in their court or in any court or make a nonpublic statement that might substantially interfere with a fair trial or hearing. The MDJ shall require their staff to do so as well. MDJs are permitted to make public statements in the course of their official duties and to explain the court's procedures for public information. <input type="checkbox"/> 6. Publicity, broadcasting, and recording of proceedings. <input type="checkbox"/> a. The MDJ shall: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Prohibit the taking of photographs, video, or motion pictures of any judicial proceedings in the hearing room or courtroom or its environs during the judicial proceedings; and <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Prohibit the transmission of communications by telephone, radio, television, or advanced communication technology from the hearing room or courtroom or its environs during the progress of, or in connection with, any judicial proceedings, whether or not the court is actually in session. <input type="checkbox"/> b. The MDJ may allow: The taking of photographs, or radio or television broadcasting, or broadcasting by advanced communication technology, of judicial proceedings such as the swearing-in of public officials which may be conducted in the hearing room or courtroom.	Pa.R.S.C.M.D.J. 2.10. Pa.R.Crim.P. 112. Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(A)(1). Note: The "environs" of the hearing room or courtroom are the area immediately surrounding the entrances and exits to the hearing room or courtroom. Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(A). Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(A)(2). Note: Nothing in Rule 112 is meant to prohibit the use of advanced communication technology for the purposes of conducting court proceedings. Comment to Pa.R.Crim. P. 112. Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(B).
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

<input type="checkbox"/> c. Recording of proceedings. The MDJ, attorney for the Commonwealth, the affiant, or the defendant may cause a recording to be made of the proceedings as an aid to the preparation of the written record for subsequent use in the case, but such a recording shall not be publicly displayed or disseminated in any manner except in a court during a trial or hearing. Unlawful use of audio or video device in court. It is unlawful for a person, in any manner and for any purpose, to use or operate a device to capture, record, transmit or broadcast a photograph, video, motion picture or audio of a proceeding or person within a judicial facility or in an area adjacent to or immediately surrounding a judicial facility without the approval of the court or presiding judicial officer or except as provided by rules of court. "Judicial facility" means a courtroom, hearing room or judicial chambers used by the court to conduct trials or hearings or any other court-related business or any other room made available to interview witnesses. A first offense is a second degree misdemeanor and a second or subsequent offense is a first degree misdemeanor.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(D). Note: "Affiant" is defined as "any responsible person capable of taking an oath who signs, swears to, affirms, or, when permitted by these rules, verifies a complaint and appreciates the nature and quality of that person's act." Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. 18 Pa.C.S. § 5103.1.
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Remedies for violation of this rule. If it appears to the MDJ that a violation of Rule 112 has resulted in substantial prejudice to the defendant, the MDJ--upon application of the attorney for the Commonwealth or the defendant--may: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Quash the proceedings at the preliminary hearing and order another preliminary hearing to be held before the same MDJ at a subsequent time without additional costs being taxed; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Discharge the defendant on nominal bail (if in custody) or continue bail (if at liberty), pending further proceedings; <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Order all costs of the MDJ forfeited in the original proceedings; or	Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(E). Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(E)(1). Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(E)(2). Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(E)(3).

<input type="checkbox"/> iv. Adopt any, all, or a combination of the foregoing remedies as the nature of the case requires in the interests of justice.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(E)(4).
<input type="checkbox"/> 7. Transcript of proceedings before an MDJ. Since MDJ courts are not courts of record, a written verbatim transcript of the proceedings is not required.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 115. Note: Pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 112(D) (Checklist 3-1(6)(c) above), the Commonwealth, affiant, or defendant may cause a verbatim recording to be made. In addition, some judicial districts may make recordings of proceedings before MDJs.
Within the context of criminal proceedings before an MDJ, the term "transcript" refers to the case information that the MDJ shall prepare and forward to the court of common pleas when an appeal is taken in summary cases or the defendant is held for court in court cases.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 135(A). Note: An accurate docket must be maintained as this is essential for the preparation of all the necessary transcript information. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 135.
The transcript shall contain the following, where applicable:	Note: MDJS Form 1200 is the Docket Transcript form.
<input type="checkbox"/> i. The date and place of the hearings;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 135(B)(1).

Central Courts are magisterial district courts established by the president judge pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 131(B) for preliminary hearings or summary trials in all cases, or a certain class of cases, to be held in a central location or locations within the judicial district at specified times. If local conditions require, the president judge may establish procedures for preliminary hearings or summary trials in all cases, or a certain class of cases, to be held in a central location. C. COUNSEL

A criminal defendant has a right to counsel in court cases and in all summary cases where there is a likelihood of a sentence of imprisonment being imposed. Alabama v. Shelton, 535 U.S. 654, 674 (2002); Scott v. Illinois, 440 U.S. 367 (1979); Argersinger v. Hamlin, 407 U.S. 25, 37-38 (1972); Pa.R.Crim.P. 122. The right to counsel also applies to prosecutions for violations of municipal ordinances where there is a likelihood of imprisonment. Commonwealth v. Farmer, 466 A.2d 677, 678 (Pa. Super. 1983). This right may be waived if the correct procedures are followed. Id.; Pa.R.Crim.P. 121. Counsel may also be appointed if the defendant lacks the financial resources to retain his/her own counsel. Pa.R.Crim.P. 122 & 123. The procedures for waiver, appointment, and assignment of counsel are discussed in Checklist 3-2 below.

Checklist 3-2: Counsel	Authority/Notes

<input type="checkbox"/> a. Waiver procedure before an MDJ. When a defendant in a summary case (if there is a right to counsel) or in a preliminary hearing in a court case seeks to waive his/her right to counsel, the MDJ shall ascertain from the defendant whether the waiver is knowing, voluntary, and intelligent. The waiver shall also be in writing: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Signed by the defendant, with a representation that the defendant was told of his/her right to be represented by counsel and to have an attorney appointed if the defendant could not afford one, and that the defendant chooses to act as his/her own attorney at the hearing or trial; and <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Signed by the MDJ, with a certification that the waiver was made knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Waiver colloquy. To ensure that the waiver is knowing, voluntary, and intelligent, the MDJ shall, at a minimum, elicit the following: <input type="checkbox"/> i. That the defendant understands that he/she has the right to be represented by counsel and to have free counsel appointed, if he/she is indigent. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. That the defendant understands the nature of the charges against him/her and the elements of each of those charges. <input type="checkbox"/> iii. That the defendant is aware of the permissible range of sentences and/or fines for the offenses charged. <input type="checkbox"/> iv. That the defendant understands that if he/she waives the right to counsel, he/she will still be bound by all the normal rules of procedure and that counsel would be familiar with these rules.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(B). Note: MDJS Form 606 is the Waiver of Counsel form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(B)(1). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(B)(2). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(a). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(b). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(c). Note: The permissible range of sentences are set forth in 18 Pa.C.S. § 106(b). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(d).
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

<input type="checkbox"/> v. That the defendant understands that there are possible defenses to these charges which counsel might be aware of, and if these defenses are not raised at trial they may be permanently lost. <input type="checkbox"/> vi. That the defendant understands that, in addition to defenses, the defendant has many rights that, if not timely raised, may be lost permanently; and that if errors occur and are not timely objected to or otherwise timely raised by the defendant, these errors may be lost permanently. Who is to conduct the colloquy? The MDJ may permit the attorney for the Commonwealth or the defendant's attorney to conduct the waiver colloquy; however, the MDJ shall be present during the colloquy. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Standby counsel. When the defendant's waiver of counsel is accepted, standby counsel may be appointed. Standby counsel shall attend the proceedings and be available to the defendant for consultation and advice. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Appointment of counsel. <input type="checkbox"/> a. When counsel shall be appointed. Counsel shall be appointed: <input type="checkbox"/> i. In all summary cases, for all defendants who are without financial resources or who are otherwise unable to employ counsel when there is a likelihood that imprisonment will be imposed; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. In all court cases, prior to the preliminary hearing, to all defendants	Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(e). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(2)(f). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(A)(3). Pa.R.Crim.P. 121(D). Note: It is not required that standby counsel be appointed. Such an appointment would probably be rare in the MDJ context. Pa.R.Crim.P. 122(A)(1). Note: Thus, the MDJ in a summary case should make a pretrial determination, based on his/her experience with the particular offense, as to whether a jail sentence would be likely in the event of a finding of guilt. If in doubt, the MDJ can ask the attorney for the Commonwealth if he/she intends to recommend a jail sentence in the event of conviction. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 122. Pa.R.Crim.P. 122(A)(2).

who are without financial resources or who are otherwise unable to employ counsel; or <input type="checkbox"/> iii. In all cases, by the MDJ, on his/her own motion, when the interests of justice require. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Procedure when counsel is appointed. When counsel is appointed: <input type="checkbox"/> i. The MDJ shall enter an order indicating the name, address, and phone number of appointed counsel, which shall be served on the defendant, appointed counsel, the previous attorney (if any), and the attorney for the Commonwealth; and <input type="checkbox"/> ii. The appointment shall be effective until final judgment, including any proceedings on direct appeal. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Motion for change of appointed counsel. A motion for change of appointed counsel made by the defendant shall not be granted except for substantial reasons. To satisfy this standard, the defendant must show that he/she has an irreconcilable difference that precludes counsel from representing him/her. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Choice of appointed counsel. Even though an indigent defendant may be entitled to appointed counsel, he/she is not entitled free counsel of his/her own choosing. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Application for assignment of counsel in court cases. A defendant requesting assignment of counsel in a court case shall file a signed and verified application for	Pa.R.Crim.P. 122(A)(3); Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 122. Pa.R.Crim.P. 122(B). Note: Individual judicial districts may have procedures for appointment of counsel at the MDJ level. The MDJ should determine if any such local procedures exist and follow them. D. SEARCH WARRANTS

A search warrant may be issued by an MDJ within the judicial district where the person or property to be searched is located. Pa.R.Crim.P. 200. In addition, an MDJ assigned to another judicial district as part of a regional administrative unit may issue a search warrant for the assigned judicial district. Pa.R.J.A. 701(E)(1) (stating that MDJs assigned to a judicial district other than their own shall exercise the same power and authority as an MDJ of the judicial district to which they have been assigned). The following checklist details the procedures for issuing and serving a search warrant.

Checklist 3-3: Search Warrants	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Purpose of the warrant. A search warrant may be issued to search for and seize: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> a. Contraband, the fruits of a crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or <input type="checkbox"/> b. Property that is or has been used as the means of committing a criminal offense; or <input type="checkbox"/> c. Property that constitutes evidence of the commission of a criminal offense. 	Pa.R.Crim.P. 201. Pa.R.Crim.P. 201(1). Pa.R.Crim.P. 201(2). Pa.R.Crim.P. 201(3).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Approval of search warrant applications by an attorney for the Commonwealth (a/k/a local option). The district attorney may require that search warrant applications be pre-approved by an attorney for the Commonwealth. If the district attorney elects to require such approval, he/she shall file a certification with the court of common pleas specifying the circumstances under which search warrant applications shall require prior approval, and the court of common pleas shall promulgate a local rule to that effect.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 202(A)-(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Requirements for issuance of a search warrant.

□ a. Advanced communication technology. At the MDJ's discretion, advanced communication technology may be used to submit a search warrant application and affidavits(s) and to issue a search warrant. As of January 2022, there are proposed rule changes that may affect the definition of advanced communication technology and its use. Please consult the statewide rules (Criminal and Minor Court Civil) and local rules for additional guidance. Immediately prior to submitting a search warrant application and affidavit to an MDJ using advanced communication technology, the affiant shall personally communicate with the MDJ in person, by telephone, or by any device which, at a minimum, allows for simultaneous audio-visual communication. During the communication, the MDJ shall verify the identity of the affiant, and orally administer the oath to the affiant. In any telephonic communication, if the MDJ has a concern regarding the identity of the affiant, he/she may require the affiant to communicate by a device allowing for two-way simultaneous audio-visual communication or may require the affiant to appear in person. □ b. Probable cause. No search warrant shall be issued except upon probable cause supported by one or more affidavits sworn/affirmed to before the MDJ in person or using advanced communication technology. The MDJ, in determining whether there is probable cause, shall not consider any evidence outside the affidavits. The MDJ's task is to make a practical, common sense decision whether, given all the circumstances set forth in the affidavit--including the veracity and basis of knowledge of persons supplying hearsay-- there is a fair probability that contraband or evidence of a crime will be found in a particular place.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 203(A). Note: "Advanced communication technology" is defined as "any communication equipment that is used as a link between parties in physically separate locations, and includes, but is not limited to: systems providing for two-way simultaneous communication of image and sound; closed-circuit television; telephone and facsimile equipment; and electronic mail." Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. Pa.R.Crim.P. 203(C). Note: Verification requirements can include, but aren't limited to: a "call back" system where the MDJ would call the agency or department the affiant indicates is seeking the warrant; a "signature comparison" system; or an established password system. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 203. Pa.R.Crim.P. 203(B). Note: The limitation that only the affidavits are to be considered in determining if probable cause is present also extends to hearings on motions to return evidence or motions to suppress evidence. Probable cause is demonstrated if the facts in the affidavit reasonably show that the items sought are connected to criminal activity and they will be found in the place to be searched at the time of the search. Four corners rule. In determining if probable cause is present the MDJ "may not consider any evidence outside the four corners of the affidavit." <input type="checkbox"/> c. Nighttime search. No search warrant shall authorize a nighttime search (between 10:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.) unless the affidavits show additional reasonable cause for a nighttime search. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Anticipatory search warrant. A search warrant may be issued in anticipation of a future event as long as the warrant is based upon an affidavit showing probable cause that, at some future time, but not currently, certain evidence of a crime will be located at a specified place. <input type="checkbox"/> e. Application for search warrant. An application for a search warrant shall be supported by written affidavits signed and sworn to or affirmed before an MDJ. The affidavits shall: <input type="checkbox"/> i. State the affiant's name and department, agency, or address; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Identify specifically the items or property to be searched for or seized; <input type="checkbox"/> iii. E. EXTRADITION AND INTER-COUNTY DETENTION

Extradition and inter-county detention are related terms that each involve persons apprehended in the judicial district who are charged with criminal offenses in another place. Extradition concerns persons apprehended in the judicial district who have been charged with crimes in another state, while inter-county detention concerns persons apprehended in the judicial district who are charged with crimes in another county.

1. Extradition

Extradition is the process by which one state surrenders to another state an individual accused or convicted of a crime outside its territory and within the territorial jurisdiction of the other state upon demand. Black's Law Dictionary (10th ed. 2014). If the requesting state believes a fugitive is present in Pennsylvania, its executive authority (usually the governor) can issue a demand to the governor of Pennsylvania. 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 9123 & 9124. If the governor of Pennsylvania agrees that the fugitive should be surrendered to the requesting state, he/she may issue an arrest warrant (known as a governor's warrant). 42 Pa.C.S. § 9128. Persons arrested pursuant to a governor's warrant are to be brought before a court of record and thus are not within the MDJ's jurisdiction. 42 Pa.C.S. § 9131.

There are, however, situations where the fugitive may be brought before an MDJ. Both situations involve arrests made prior to a request for extradition from another state. 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 9134 (arrest pursuant to a fugitive warrant) & 9135 (arrest without a warrant). The procedures for handling these situations are discussed in Checklist 3-4 below.

Important: The information provided in Checklist 3-4 was derived from statute, but individual counties may have varying practices for handling extradition, and the MDJ should consult with the court administrator's office for the judicial district to determine what the local practice is in regard to extradition.

Checklist 3-4: Extradition Procedure	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Arrest prior to requisition upon a fugitive warrant. An MDJ shall issue an arrest warrant for any person believed to be in the Commonwealth based either on the charge of any credible person under oath before the MDJ or upon a complaint and affidavit made before the MDJ. A "credible person" is defined as: "[O]ne who is trustworthy and entitled to be believed. 2. Inter-County Detention

Inter-county detention involves persons apprehended in one county of Pennsylvania who committed a crime in another county of Pennsylvania and fled, or were convicted of a crime in another county and subsequently escaped confinement or broke the terms of their bail, probation, or parole. 42 Pa.C.S. § 9161. F. JUVENILE DELINQUENCY ARREST WARRANTS

Although juvenile delinquency matters are typically outside of the jurisdiction of the MDJ courts, there is one area that the Rules of Juvenile Court Procedure state could come before an MDJ: arrest warrants. Pa.R.J.C.P. 120 & 210. Under Rule 210, an issuing authority designated by the president judge may issue an arrest warrant in a delinquency matter. Checklist 3-6 below outlines the procedures for issuance of such a warrant.

Checklist 3-6: Delinquency Arrest Warrant Procedure	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Application for warrant. An application for an arrest warrant for a juvenile shall be made to either the president judge or an MDJ designated by the president judge.	Pa.R.J.C.P. 210(A).

If the district attorney has filed a certification pursuant to Pa.R.J.C.P. 231, no application for an arrest warrant may be submitted to an MDJ unless it has been approved by the district attorney.	Pa.R.J.C.P. 210(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Requirements for issuance. The arrest warrant shall only be issued on probable cause supported by one or more affidavits sworn to before the MDJ. In determining probable cause the MDJ may not consider any evidence outside the affidavits.	Pa.R.J.C.P. 211(A).

IV. CRIMINAL: SUMMARY OFFENSES

A. INTRODUCTION

The criminal offenses that an MDJ handles are divided into two broad categories: summary offenses, which are discussed in this section, and non-summary offenses--also referred to as court cases--that are discussed in Section V. Summary offenses are those that are designated as such under the Crimes Code or other statute, or that carry a potential term of imprisonment of not more than 90 days. 18 Pa.C.S. § 106(c). Violations of municipal ordinances can also be summary offenses. If a defendant is charged with a felony or misdemeanor offense in addition to a summary offense, the case should proceed as a court case in the manner discussed in Section V. Summary offenses consist of two main categories: traffic and non-traffic offenses.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law, and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such local rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. INSTITUTING SUMMARY CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

Generally, a summary offense proceeding before an MDJ may be initiated in one of four ways: (1) the issuance of a citation directly to the defendant (Pa.R.Crim.P. 405 - 409); (2) the filing of a citation with the MDJ when it is not issued directly to the defendant (Pa.R.Crim.P. 410 - 414); (3) the filing of a summary complaint by a private citizen (Pa.R.Crim.P. 420 - 424); or (4) arrest without a warrant as authorized by law (Pa.R.Crim.P. 440 - 441).

Except as otherwise provided, prosecution of a summary offense shall be commenced within 2 years after the alleged offense is committed. 42 Pa.C.S. § 5552(a). Summary traffic offenses generally shall be commenced within 30 days after commission of the alleged offense or within 30 days after discovery of the commission of the offense or the identity of the offender, whichever is later, although there are exceptions to this time limit. 42 Pa.C.S. § 5553.

1. Institution of Proceedings: Direct Issuance of Citation

Many summary cases will begin with a law enforcement officer issuing a completed citation directly to the defendant. Pa.R.Crim.P. 402 & 405. These cases are handled as set forth in Checklist 4-1 below.

Checklist 4-1: Direct Issuance of Citation	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Contents of the citation. The citation shall contain: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The name, address, and badge number (if any) of the law enforcement officer; <input type="checkbox"/> b. The defendant's name and address; <input type="checkbox"/> c. A notation if the defendant is under 18 years of age and whether his/her parents or guardians have been notified of the charge(s); <input type="checkbox"/> d. The date and time the alleged offense was committed and, if the day of the week is an essential element of the offense, it shall also be specifically set forth; <input type="checkbox"/> e. The place where the offense is alleged to have been committed; <input type="checkbox"/> f. A citation to the specific section and subsection of the statute/ordinance allegedly violated, along with a summary of the facts sufficient to advise the defendant of the nature of the offense charged; <input type="checkbox"/> g. Notices to the defendant that: the original citation will be filed with the MDJ; the defendant will have 10 days to plead guilty or not guilty or appear before the MDJ; all checks sent for fines, costs, or collateral shall be made payable to the magisterial district court set forth on the citation; failure to respond shall result in the issuance of a summons or warrant (whichever is appropriate), suspension of driver's license (for Vehicle Code violations); failure to indicate a plea when sending back an amount equal to fines and costs will result in a guilty plea being recorded; and, if the defendant is convicted or pleads guilty, he/she may appeal within 30 days for a trial de novo.   <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Filing of citation by law enforcement officer. After issuing the citation to the defendant, the law enforcement officer shall file the original with the proper MDJ court within 5 days of issuance.   Electronic filing. The citation need not be filed personally, and may be filed electronically.   Untimely filing; no dismissal. The 5 day time limit is not to be grounds for dismissal unless the defendant is prejudiced by the delay. The defendant shall raise any alleged defective filing before the conclusion of the summary trial. 	costs, he/she may also be required to sentence the defendant to pay a criminal laboratory user fee pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.3. Parental notification. If the defendant is under the age of 18 and not emancipated, the MDJ shall mail a copy of the citation, or other appropriate written notification, to the parents or legal guardians at the time of filing of the citation if they have not previously been notified by the police. The MDJ shall not accept a plea or schedule a hearing until 72 hours have elapsed from the mailing of the notice. This notice requirement does not apply to Vehicle Code offenses except for 75 Pa.C.S. § 1543 (driving while operating privileges suspended or revoked).	42 Pa.C.S. § 1522(a) & (b).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Plea. A defendant has 10 days after issuance of the citation to plead guilty or not guilty, either in person or by mail. The defendant may do so by signing and returning the citation. Guilty pleas. A defendant may plead guilty by: notifying the MDJ in writing and forwarding an amount equal to the fines and costs specified in the citation, or appearing before the MDJ when the fines and costs are not specified in the citation, or after receiving notice from the MDJ that a guilty plea has not been accepted. <input type="checkbox"/> i. By mail. When a defendant pleads guilty by mail, he/she shall sign the plea acknowledging that it is entered voluntarily and understandingly. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Warrant. C. GENERAL PROCEDURES IN SUMMARY CASES

Checklist 4-5: General Summary Criminal Procedures	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Service. Citations, summonses, and trial notices may be served, either personally on the defendant or by mail to his/her last known address. When a summons is served by first class mail and the defendant fails to respond or appear within the time specified by the rules, the MDJ shall cause service to be made either personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Juveniles. In summary proceedings involving persons under the age of 18 and who are not emancipated, the MDJ may--if he/she determines that it is in the child's best interests--issue an order requiring the parent or legal guardian, or other person with whom the child resides (if different from the parent or guardian), to be present and	Pa.R.Crim.P. 451(A) & (B). Note: MDJS Form 624 is the Service of Process form. MDJS Form 640 is the Server Fee Notice form. 42 Pa.C.S. § 1523. Note: MDJS Form 608A is the Order for Parent/Legal Guardian to Attend Juvenile Summary Proceedings form.

ready to participate at the proceedings. No later than 10 days before the proceedings, the MDJ shall send notice of the order to the parent/guardian/other person with whom the child resides. If the parent/guardian/other person with whom the child resides fails to comply, he/she may be found in contempt of court pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137 (see Section VII). In addition, the MDJ may issue a bench warrant if the parent/guardian/other person with whom the child resides fails to appear at the proceeding.
□ 2. Collateral. The MDJ shall generally release a defendant on recognizance unless he/she has reasonable grounds to believe the defendant will not appear.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(A).
If the MDJ has reasonable grounds to believe the defendant will not appear he/she may fix the amount of collateral to be deposited to ensure defendant’s appearance at summary trial, which shall not exceed the full amount of fines and costs.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(B).
In determining whether collateral is necessary and what amount to set, the MDJ shall consider the factors listed in Pa.R.Crim.P. 523 (see Section V, Checklist 5-6).	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(C).
If the MDJ sets collateral, he/she shall state in writing the reasons why any collateral other than release on recognizance has been set and the facts that support the determination that the defendant has the ability to pay monetary collateral.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(D).
To be released on recognizance or request lower collateral, the defendant must appear personally before the MDJ to enter a plea as provided in Pa.R.Crim.P. 408, 413, and 423.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(E).
Collateral shall be in United States currency or cash equivalent, and may be forfeited after conviction and applied to payment of fines, costs, and restitution.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 452(F)&(G). Note: Any guaranteed arrest bond certificate issued by an automobile club or association pursuant to 40 P.S. § 837 constitutes a cash equivalent. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 452.
Purpose of collateral. Collateral has two purposes: (1) to function as bail to secure the defendant's appearance; and (2) as security that may be forfeited in the event of conviction to pay fines and costs.	Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 452.

A defendant may not be penalized or denied a hearing because he/she cannot pay the full amount of fines and costs as collateral. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Joinder <input type="checkbox"/> a. Defendants. When more than one person is alleged to have participated in the commission of a summary offense, the MDJ shall accept one citation or complaint for each person charged. The citations or complaints against such persons may be consolidated for trial. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Offenses. When more than one summary offense arising from the same incident is alleged to have been committed by one person, the matter shall proceed as a single case and the MDJ shall receive only one set of costs. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Continuances. In the interests of justice, an MDJ may grant a continuance either upon motion of a party or upon the MDJ's own motion. The MDJ shall record on the transcript the name of the moving party and the reasons for granting or denying the continuance and shall give notice to the parties. A defendant's motion for continuance shall be made no later than 48 hours before the time set for trial. A later motion shall be entertained only if the opportunity for making it did not previously exist, the defendant was not aware of the grounds for the motion, or the interests of justice require it. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Accelerated Rehabilitative Disposition (ARD). ARD programs are designed to rehabilitate offenders and secure prompt disposition of charges. Offenders typically eligible for ARD are first-time offenders who commit relatively minor crimes that do not involve a serious breach of the public trust. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Local procedures. The president judge shall formulate local procedures for ARD in his/her judicial district, which shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of courts with copies served on all judges and MDJs handling summary case ARD matters. The local procedures shall--at a minimum--establish: costs and administrative	Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 452. Pa.R.Crim.P. 453(A). Note: Costs in a summary case where there are multiple defendants would be assessed against each defendant even if the cases are consolidated for trial. --------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

expenses taxable for summary case ARD; procedures for restitution; conditions of the program; record checking, record keeping, and reporting requirements; procedures requiring each MDJ to submit a monthly report on the disposition of all the cases eligible for ARD to the official designated by the president judge to compile these reports and monitor the cases; and procedures for completion or termination of the program.
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Procedure for handling summary ARD matters. Unless the district attorney has elected that ARD in summary cases should proceed in the court of common pleas, a defendant who is eligible for inclusion in an ARD program may be admitted by an MDJ subject to local procedures formulated by the president judge. If the MDJ does not admit an eligible defendant, he/she shall include a statement of reasons for the denial in the monthly report required by local procedures. If the defendant declines to accept or fails to complete the program, or if the MDJ does not admit the case for ARD, the case shall proceed to trial in the manner described below.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 301.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. Trial procedures.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Prior to trial. Immediately before the trial begins, the defendant shall be given the following advisories followed by an opportunity to enter a plea.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 454(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> i. The defendant shall be advised of the charges against him/her.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 454(A)(1).

counsel shall be assigned as provided in Pa.R.Crim.P. 122. <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Plea. Once the defendant has been advised of (i) and (ii) above, he/she shall enter a plea. If the defendant pleads guilty, the MDJ shall impose sentence as provided in Checklist 4-5(6)(c) below. If the defendant pleads not guilty, the MDJ shall proceed to trial. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Trial. <input type="checkbox"/> i. Conduct of trial. The MDJ shall try the case in the same manner as non-jury criminal trials are conducted in the court of common pleas pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 621. Rule 621 states that the judge in a non-jury trial shall determine all questions of law and fact and render a verdict. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Scheduling. Scheduling of the summary trial is at the discretion of the MDJ; however, trial should be scheduled promptly following the defendant's plea/arrest. If the defendant is incarcerated pending trial, it is incumbent upon the MDJ to schedule trial at the earliest possible time. <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Presence of the law enforcement officer. In summary cases arising under the Vehicle Code or local traffic ordinances, the law enforcement officer who observed the alleged offense may, but is not required to, appear and testify. In no event shall the failure of a law enforcement officer to appear, by itself, be grounds for dismissal of the charges. <input type="checkbox"/> iv. Subpoena power. If there appears to be good grounds for the officer's absence, the MDJ could grant a continuance. If there does not appear to be good grounds for the officer's absence, the MDJ could proceed with trial. In determining which way to proceed the MDJ should also consider the seriousness of the charge. 42 Pa.C.S. § 1513 (describing MDJs' powers to issue every lawful process)

Juveniles--non-traffic offenses. If the defendant was under 18 years of age at the time of the offense and is charged with a summary offense that would otherwise carry a mandatory prison sentence as prescribed by statute, the MDJ is required to conduct the summary trial but may not sentence the defendant to a term of imprisonment. Traffic. Any person over the age of 16 who is charged with a violation of the Vehicle Code constituting a summary offense shall have the same rights as an adult and may be prosecuted as an adult. E. MISCELLANEOUS SUMMARY ISSUES

1. Truancy Cases

Checklist 4-7: Truancy	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Truancy: generally. A child under 15 years of age who is habitually truant (i.e., 6 or more school days of unexcused absences during the school year) shall be either referred by the school to a school or community-based attendance improvement program or referred to the county children and youth agency for services and possible disposition as a dependent child under the Juvenile Act, 42 Pa.C.S. § 6301 et seq. The school may also file a citation with the appropriate MDJ against the person in parental relation who resides in the same household as the child. A person in parental relation means: (1) a custodial biological or adoptive parent; (2) a noncustodial biological or adoptive parent; (3) a guardian of the person of a child; or (4) a person with whom a child lives and who is acting in a parental role of a child. The definition does not include any county agency or person acting as an agent of a county agency in the jurisdiction of a dependent child. If a child 15 years of age or older is habitually truant the school shall either refer the child to a school or community-based attendance improvement program or file a citation with the appropriate MDJ against the child or the person in parental relation who resides in the same household as the child. Home schooling. The provisions of § 13-1333 do not apply to parents, guardians, or persons in parental relation whose child or children are in a home education program pursuant to 24 P.S. § 13-1327.1.	24 P.S. § 13-1333.1(a); 24 P.S. § 13-1326. 24 P.S. § 13-1326. 24 P.S. § 13-1333.1(b). 24 P.S. § 13-1333.1(e).

Venue for a truancy citation is based on the location of the school in which the child is enrolled or shall be enrolled. In the case of a	24 P.S. § 13-1333.2(a). 24 P.S. § 13-1327.2(b).

child enrolled in a cyber charter school, venue is based on the child's residence.
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Notice of violation. Before proceedings may be initiated against a child or person in parental relation who resides in the same household, the MDJ shall provide written notice of the hearing to the school, the person in parental relation, the child, and the county children and youth agency. In addition, the MDJ shall provide the child or person in parental relation with notice of the availability of a pre-conviction diversionary program authorized under 42 Pa.C.S. § 1520.	24 P.S. § 13-1333.2(b). Note: For purposes of this statute, the term "person in parental relation" does not include any county agency or person acting as an agent of the county agency. 24 P.S. § 13-1326.
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Hearing. The burden is on the school to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that while subject to compulsory attendance requirements, the child was habitually and without justification truant.	24 P.S. § 13-1333.2(c).
If the person in parental relation who shares the same household as the child shows by a preponderance of the evidence that he/she took every reasonable step to insure the child's attendance at school, he/she shall not be convicted of the summary offense.	24 P.S. § 13-1333.2(d) & (e).
The MDJ then determines if the evidence has established a violation and enters the verdict.	24 P.S. § 13-1332.2(f).
To the extent possible, the school is to inform the court of any prior truancy convictions by the child or the person in parental relation.	24 P.S. § 13-1332.2(g).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Sentencing. Prior to sentencing, the MDJ shall permit the school, person in parental relation, or child to present relevant information to assist the MDJ in making an informed decision. The child's attendance after the citation was filed and while proceedings were pending may be considered.	24 P.S. § 13-1333.2(h).
A person convicted of truancy may be sentenced to: (1) pay a fine for the benefit of the school not	24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(a).

to exceed $300 plus costs for a first offense ($500 for second and $750 for third and subsequent offenses); (2) community service; or (3) completion of a course/program designed to improve school attendance approved by the president judge. Subsequent convictions. Upon a person's second or subsequent truancy conviction within a three year period the court shall refer the child for services or possible disposition as a dependent child. Suspension of sentence. The MDJ may suspend a sentence and may remit or waive fines and costs if the child attends school in accordance with a plan devised by the court. <input type="checkbox"/> e. Appeal. Any person convicted of truancy has the right to appeal de novo to the court of common pleas within 30 days of conviction. <input type="checkbox"/> f. Failure to satisfy penalty. If a person fails to satisfy the penalty imposed by the court, a person in parental relation may be found in contempt and sentenced three days in any one case. The court shall make a determination as to the person in parental relation's reasonable ability to comply and whether noncompliance was willful. In the case of a child, failure to satisfy fines or costs shall not be considered a delinquent act. The president judge may adopt a local policy to provide that juvenile probation may receive allegations that a child who fails to satisfy fines or costs is dependent. <input type="checkbox"/> g. Subsequent violations. No citation for a subsequent violation may be filed if: (1) a truancy proceeding and judgment had not been rendered unless a warrant for failure to appear has been issued and has not yet been served; (2) a referral to county children and youth services has been made, the agency has not yet closed the case, and the educational entity has not consulted with the county children and youth agency prior to filing the petition; or (3) a dependency petition due to truancy has been	24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(e). 24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(b). 24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(c). 24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(f). 24 P.S. § 13-1333.3(d).

Juveniles. If the defendant is under the age of 18 and fails to respond to a citation, the MDJ shall first issue a summons as set forth in Pa.R.Crim.P. 403(B)(4)(a) (see Checklist 4-2 for summons). If the defendant fails to respond to the summons, the MDJ should issue a warrant as provided in either Checklist 4-8 or 4-9, whichever is appropriate.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 430(A). Note: MDJS Form 417 is the Warrant form. Note: Reasonable grounds would include, for example, other outstanding warrants, a history of failure to appear, continuing criminal conduct, etc. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 430 & 431.

Except in truancy cases in which the defendant is at least 15 but not yet 17 (see Checklist 4-7(1)), if the defendant is under the age of 18 and has not paid fines and costs, the MDJ shall issue the notice required under Pa.R.Crim.P. 430(B)(4) (see Checklist 4-8(2)(b)(ii)) to the defendant and his/her parent, guardian, or other custodian, informing them that if payment is not received or defendant does not appear within 10 days, the MDJ will certify the failure to pay to the court of common pleas as required by the Juvenile Act. After certification, the case will proceed according to the Juvenile Act and the Rules of Juvenile Court Procedure. If the default occurs when the defendant is over 18, the Rules of Criminal Procedure should be followed. Traffic. Any person over the age of 16 who is charged with a violation of the Vehicle Code constituting a summary offense shall have the same rights as an adult and may be prosecuted as an adult. No person, however, may be sentenced to a term of imprisonment for violation of any provision of the Vehicle Code committed while the person was under the age of 18 years. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. 4. Expungement: Summary Convictions Generally

Summary convictions that meet the requirements of 18 Pa.C.S. § 9122 (Expungement) and 18 Pa.C.S. § 9123 (Juvenile Records) may be expunged under the procedures outlined in Pa.R.Crim.P. 490. A petition for expungement of a summary conviction is filed with the clerk of courts for the court of common pleas of the judicial district in which the charges were disposed. Petitioners may find information about such petitions on the AOPC website at <http://www.pacourts.us/forms/for-the-public>. For information on expungement and the Clean Slate Law and limited access), see AOPC website at <https://www.pacourts.us/learn/learn-about-the-judicial-system/clean-slate-expungement-and-limited-access>.

For expungement of summary truancy convictions see Checklist 4-10 immediately below.

V. CRIMINAL: COURT CASES

A. INTRODUCTION

The criminal offenses that an MDJ handles are divided into two broad categories: summary offenses, which are discussed in section IV, and non-summary offenses--also referred to as court cases-- which are discussed in this section. Summary offenses are those that are designated as such under the Crimes Code or other statute, or carry a potential term of imprisonment of not more than 90 days. 18 Pa.C.S. § 106(c). Court cases consist of murder (first, second, or third degree), felonies, and misdemeanors. 18 Pa.C.S. §§ 103; 106(b). If a defendant is charged with a court case offense in addition to a summary offense, the case should proceed as a court case. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 502.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that may also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such local rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. INSTITUTING COURT CASE PROCEEDINGS

Generally, Pa.R.Crim.P. 502 states that court cases may be initiated in two ways: (1) by the filing of a written complaint (Pa.R.Crim.P. 503 - 517), or (2) by an arrest without a warrant (Pa.R.Crim.P. 519). The situations where a court case may be initiated by an arrest without a warrant are: (a) when the offense is a murder, felony, or misdemeanor committed in the presence of the arresting officer; (b) upon probable cause when the offense is a felony or murder; or (c) upon probable cause when the offense is a misdemeanor not committed in the presence of the arresting officer, when such an arrest is specifically authorized by a statute. Pa.R.Crim.P. 502.

1. Institution of Proceedings: Complaint

Many court cases will begin with a complaint filed with the appropriate issuing authority (which is, for the purpose of this bench book, the MDJ). Pa.R.Crim.P. 503. These cases are handled as set forth in Checklist 5-1 below.

Checklist 5-1: Complaint Procedures	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Content of the complaint. The complaint shall contain: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The name of the affiant; <input type="checkbox"/> b. The defendant's name and address or, if not known, a description of the defendant "as nearly as may be"; <input type="checkbox"/> c. A direct accusation, to the best of the affiant's knowledge, information, and belief, that the defendant violated the penal laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; <input type="checkbox"/> d. The date the offense is alleged to have been committed and, if the date or day of the week is an essential element of the offense, it shall also be specifically stated;	Note: The requirements of Rule 504 shall be met whether the affiant is a law enforcement officer, police officer, or private citizen. A "law enforcement officer" is defined as "any person who is by law given the power to enforce the law when acting within the scope of that person's employment." Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. A "police officer" is defined as "any person who is by law given the power to arrest when acting within the scope of that person's employment." Id. Note: MDJS Form 412A is the Police Criminal Complaint form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(1). Note: "Affiant" is defined as "any responsible person capable of taking an oath who signs, swears to, affirms, or, when permitted by these rules, verifies a complaint and appreciates the nature and quality of that person's act." Pa.R.Crim.P. 103. Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(2). Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(3). Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(4). Note: If the specific date is unknown or the offense is a continuing one, it is sufficient to state that it was committed on or about any date within the period of limitations. Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(4)(a).

<input type="checkbox"/> e. The place where the offense is alleged to have been committed;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(5).
<input type="checkbox"/> f. A summary of the facts sufficient to advise the defendant of the nature of the offense charged, but neither the evidence nor the statute that is alleged to have been violated need be cited in the complaint. If the statute allegedly violated is cited this, by itself, shall not be sufficient by itself to constitute compliance with this requirement;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(6)(a).
<input type="checkbox"/> g. A statement that the defendant's acts were against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth or in violation of an ordinance of one of its political subdivisions;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(7).
<input type="checkbox"/> h. A notation if criminal laboratory services are requested;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(8). Note: This will serve to notify the MDJ that in addition to any fines, restitution, or costs, he/she may also be required to sentence the defendant to pay a criminal laboratory user fee pursuant to 42 Pa.C.S. § 1725.3. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 504.
<input type="checkbox"/> i. A notation that the defendant has, or has not been, fingerprinted;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(9). Note: MDJS Form 405 is the Fingerprint Order form.
<input type="checkbox"/> j. A request for the issuance of an arrest warrant or a summons, unless an arrest has already been effectuated;	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(10).
<input type="checkbox"/> k. A verification by the affiant that the facts set forth in the complaint are true and correct to the affiant's personal knowledge, information, and belief, and that any false statements are subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (unsworn falsifications to authorities);	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(11).
<input type="checkbox"/> l. Certification that the complaint complies with the UJS Public Access Policy regarding confidential information and documents.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(12).
<input type="checkbox"/> m. The signature of the affiant and the date of execution of the complaint.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 504(13).

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Private citizen complaint. A private citizen may file a complaint if it is first submitted to an attorney for the Commonwealth for approval. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Contents. A private citizen complaint shall contain all of the information required by Pa.R.Crim.P. 504. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Approval/disapproval of private complaints. When the affiant is not a law enforcement officer, the complaint shall be submitted to an attorney for the Commonwealth, who shall approve or disapprove it without unreasonable delay. If the attorney for the Commonwealth approves it, he/she shall note this on the complaint form and transmit it to the MDJ. If the attorney for the Commonwealth disapproves of the complaint, he/she shall state the reasons for disapproval on the form and return it to the affiant. The affiant may then petition the court of common pleas for review of the disapproval decision.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 506. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 504. Note: MDJS Form 411A is the Private Criminal Complaint form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 506. Note: The Commonwealth's attorney may transmit the complaint to the MDJ by returning it to the affiant for delivery. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 506.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Approval/disapproval of police complaints and arrest warrants: Local Option. The district attorney of any county may require that criminal complaints and/or arrest warrant affidavits filed in the county by police officers be approved by an attorney for the Commonwealth before filing. If the district attorney elects to proceed under Pa.R.Crim.P. 507(A), he/she shall file a certification with the court of common pleas stating whether prior approval of police complaints and/or arrest warrants is required. The court of common pleas shall then promulgate a local rule to that effect.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 507(A). Pa.R.Crim.P. 507(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Joinder of offenses and defendants. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Defendants. When more than one person is alleged to have participated in the commission of an offense, the MDJ shall accept a complaint for each person charged. Each complaint shall contain the names of all the persons alleged to have participated in the commission of the offense as well as a reference to the docket	Pa.R.Crim.P. 505(A).

numbers of the complaints issued for the other alleged participants. Consolidation. The foregoing complaints may be consolidated for hearing or such further action as may be required. Where complaints are consolidated, additional costs shall not be taxed as a result of the acceptance of separate complaints. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Offenses. When more than one offense is alleged to have been committed by one person arising out of the same incident, the MDJ shall accept only one complaint and shall docket the matter as a single case. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Penalty. Upon application of any interested person and proof that any provision of Pa.R.Crim.P. 505(A) or (B) was violated, a judge may order forfeiture of all additional costs of the MDJ accrued by reason of such violation, and thereafter such costs shall not be taxed in the case. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Procedure after the complaint has been submitted to the MDJ. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Criteria for acceptance. Before accepting a complaint for filing, the MDJ shall ascertain and certify on the complaint that: <input type="checkbox"/> i. The complaint has been properly completed and executed; and <input type="checkbox"/> ii. When prior submission to an attorney for the Commonwealth is required, whether such an attorney has approved the complaint. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Acceptance for filing. Once the MDJ has certified that the above criteria are met, he/she shall accept the complaint for filing and the case shall proceed as provided in the Rules of Criminal Procedure. <input type="checkbox"/> 6. a. Summons Procedures

Once the complaint has been filed and the MDJ determines that a summons is appropriate, the MDJ shall issue the summons. Checklist 5-2 below describes the procedures for issuing the summons. If an arrest warrant is proper, Checklist 5-3 sets forth the procedures for issuing an arrest warrant.

2. Institution of Proceedings: Arrest Without a Warrant

As discussed above, when a complaint is filed, this act initiates the criminal proceedings. When, however, a defendant is arrested without a warrant, it is the arrest which initiates the criminal proceedings. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 503. The situations where a court case may be initiated by an arrest without a warrant are: (a) when the offense is a murder, felony, or misdemeanor committed in the presence of the arresting officer; (b) upon probable cause when the offense is a felony or murder; or (c) upon probable cause when the offense is a misdemeanor not committed in the presence of the arresting officer, when such an arrest is specifically authorized by a statute. C. BAIL

Magisterial district judges have the authority to "preside at arraignments, fix and accept bail, except for offenses under 18 Pa.C.S. §§ 2502 (relating to murder) and 2503 (relating to voluntary manslaughter)" 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a)(4). All prisoners are bailable by sufficient sureties, except those charged with capital offenses, or offenses for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment, or unless no condition or combination of conditions other than imprisonment will reasonably assure the safety of any person and the community when the proof is evident or presumption is great. Pa.Const. Art. I, § 14; 42 Pa.C.S. § 5701. The Commonwealth bears the burden of proving a defendant is not entitled to bail, which it can satisfy by establishing a prima facie case of first degree murder. Commonwealth v. Heiser, 478 A.2d 1355, 1356 (Pa. Super. 1984). Bail for defendants who are entitled to it is governed by the rules of criminal procedure. 42

Pa.C.S. § 5702; Explanatory Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 520-536. The procedures for fixing, posting, forfeiting, exoneration, and distribution of bail under the Rules of Criminal Procedure are discussed below.

In determining whether to release a defendant and what, if any, conditions to impose, the bail authority shall consider all available information as is relevant to the defendant's likely appearance/ nonappearance at subsequent proceedings or compliance/noncompliance with the conditions of bail bond including information about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="397 1092 966 1228"> <input type="checkbox"/> i. The nature of the offense charged and any mitigating/aggravating factors that may bear on the likelihood of conviction and possible penalty; <li data-bbox="397 1260 966 1333"> <input type="checkbox"/> ii. The defendant's employment status and history, and financial condition; <li data-bbox="397 1365 966 1438"> <input type="checkbox"/> iii. The nature of the defendant's family relationships; <li data-bbox="397 1470 966 1564"> <input type="checkbox"/> iv. The length and nature of the defendant's residence in the community, and any past residences; <li data-bbox="397 1596 966 1732"> <input type="checkbox"/> v. The defendant's age, character, reputation, mental condition, and whether he/she is addicted to alcohol or drugs; 	Pa.R.Crim.P. 523(A). Note: The bail authority is required to consider all of the criteria set forth below and not focus solely on one or two of them. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 523. Note: As the factors of Rule 523 make clear, the purpose of bail is to ensure the defendant's appearance at subsequent proceedings and not punishment.

If bail is set pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 520 (bail before verdict), the defendant shall be eligible for the types of release set forth below. The bail authority, after considering the criteria of Pa.R.Crim.P. 523, shall determine the type, or combination of types, of release on bail reasonably necessary (in the bail authority's discretion) to ensure that the defendant will appear at all subsequent proceedings and comply with the conditions of the bail bond. The types of release are: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Release on recognizance (ROR). Release conditioned only on the defendant's written agreement to appear and comply with the conditions of the bail bond. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Release on non-monetary conditions. Release conditioned upon the defendant's agreement to comply with any non-monetary conditions (as set forth in Pa.R.Crim.P. 527, see Checklist 5-6(5)) that the bail authority determines are reasonably necessary to ensure the defendant's appearance and compliance with the conditions of the bail bond. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Release on unsecured bail bond. Release conditioned upon the defendant's written agreement to be liable for a fixed sum of money if he/she fails to appear as required or fails to comply with the conditions of the bail bond. No money or other form of security is deposited. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Release on nominal bail. Release conditioned upon the defendant's depositing a nominal amount of cash that the bail authority determines is sufficient security for his/her release, such as $1.00, and the agreement of a designated person, organization or bail agency to act as a surety for the defendant. <input type="checkbox"/> e. Bail bond. A bail bond is a document whereby the defendant agrees that while at liberty after being released on bail, he/she will appear at all subsequent proceedings as required and comply with all conditions of the bail bond. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Preparation of bail bond. At the time bail is set, the bail authority shall have the bail bond prepared and sign it, verifying the conditions imposed. <input type="checkbox"/> b. If defendant cannot post bail. If the defendant cannot post bail at the time it is set, when the bail authority commits the defendant to jail, he/she shall send the prepared and verified bail bond and any other necessary paperwork with the defendant to the place of incarceration. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Release. When the defendant is to be released, the defendant and--when applicable--one or more sureties--shall sign the bail bond. In addition, the official who releases the defendant shall also sign the bail bond witnessing the defendant's signature. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Content of the bail bond. The bail bond shall set forth the type or combination of types of release, the conditions of release, and the conditions of the bail bond set forth in Pa.R.Crim.P. 526(A) (see Checklist 5-6(4), below), and the consequences of failing to appear or failing to comply with all the conditions of the bail bond. <input type="checkbox"/> e. If the MDJ determines that the bail or surety bond is being financed from funds derived from violations of the "Controlled Substance, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Act," the security shall not be accepted, and other security shall be required. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Deposit. After determining the amount of the monetary condition, the bail authority may permit the defendant to deposit a sum of money not to exceed 10% of the full amount of the monetary condition if he/she determines that the deposit is sufficient to ensure the defendant's appearance and compliance. See Checklist 5-6(8)(d) below on what to do if the defendant or another deposits the cash percentage. <input type="checkbox"/> e. Forms of security. One or a combination of the following shall be accepted to satisfy the full amount of the monetary condition: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Cash or, if permitted by the local court, a cash equivalent. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Bearer bonds of the United States or Commonwealth of Pennsylvania governments, or of any political subdivision of the Commonwealth, in the full amount of the monetary condition, provided that the defendant or the surety files with the bearer bond a sworn schedule verifying the value and marketability of the bonds, and which shall be approved by the bail authority. <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Realty located anywhere in the Commonwealth, including defendant's realty, as long as the actual net value is at least equal to the full amount of the monetary condition. 3. Procedures for Violation of Bail Conditions: Revocation of Release and Forfeiture/Bail Pieces/Exoneration of Surety

Checklist 5-7: Procedure for Violation of Bail Conditions	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Sanctions for violation of bail conditions. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Revocation of release. A person who violates a condition of a bail bond is subject to a revocation of release and/or a change in the conditions of the bail bond by the bail authority. <input type="checkbox"/> i. Bench warrant. When a violation occurs, the bail authority may issue a bench warrant for the defendant's arrest. When the bench warrant is executed, the bench warrant proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 150 (bench warrants). <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Request for explanation. The bail authority may also order the defendant or the defendant's surety to explain why defendant's release should not be revoked or why the conditions of release should not be changed. A copy of this order shall be served on the defendant and the defendant's surety, if any.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(1)(a). Note: This rule does not apply when a defendant is arrested pursuant to extradition proceedings. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 536. Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(1)(b). Note: MDJS Form 417 is the Warrant form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(1)(c).

□ iii. Statement of reasons. When the bail authority changes the conditions of the bail bond and/or revokes the defendant's release, the bail authority shall state in writing or on the record the reasons for doing so.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(1)(d).
□ b. Forfeiture. When a monetary condition of release has been imposed and the defendant violates a condition of the bail bond, the bail authority may order the cash or other security forfeited and shall state in writing or on the record the reasons why. If the surety is a third party, cash or other security may be forfeited only when the condition violated is that the defendant failed to appear for a scheduled court appearance.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(2)(a).
□ i. Notice. Written notice of the forfeiture shall be given to the defendant and any surety, either personally or by both first class and certified mail at the defendant's and surety's last known addresses.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(2)(b). Note: Nothing in Rule 536 precludes a judicial district from using the United States Postal Service's return receipt electronic option, or a similar service that provides an electronic receipt when using certified mail, return receipt requested. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 536. Note: MDJS Form 414A3 is the Notice of Bail Forfeiture form.
□ ii. Time for execution. The forfeiture shall not be executed until 90 days after notice of the forfeiture order.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(2)(c).
□ iii. Setting aside forfeiture. The bail authority may direct that forfeiture be set aside or remitted as provided by law or if justice does not require the full enforcement of the forfeiture order.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(2)(d).
□ iv. Handling of forfeited monies. When an MDJ orders bail forfeited, he/she shall generate a check in the amount of the bail monies on deposit and shall send it and a copy of the docket transcript to the clerk of courts for processing and disbursement.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(A)(2)(e).

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Bail pieces. A surety or bail agency may apply to the court of common pleas for a bail piece. If the court is satisfied that a bail piece is required, it may issue one authorizing the surety or bail agency to apprehend and detain the defendant and to bring him/her before the bail authority without unnecessary delay.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(B)(1)-(2).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Exoneration. A bail authority, as provided by law or as justice requires, may exonerate a surety who deposits cash in the amount of any forfeiture ordered or who surrenders the defendant in a timely manner. When the conditions of the bail bond have been satisfied, or the forfeiture has been set aside or remitted, the bail authority shall exonerate the obligors and release any bail.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 536(C)(1)-(2).

D. PRELIMINARY ARRAIGNMENT

The preliminary arraignment follows the defendant's arrest with, or without, a warrant, and should be conducted without unnecessary delay. Pa.R.Crim.P. 516(A) & 519(A). At the preliminary arraignment bail is set and the preliminary hearing date and time are scheduled. Checklist 5-8 outlines the preliminary arraignment procedures.

Checklist 5-8: Preliminary Arraignment Procedures	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Conduct of the preliminary arraignment. At the MDJ's discretion, a preliminary arraignment may be conducted using two-way simultaneous audio-visual communication. Counsel. When defendant's counsel is present, the defendant shall be permitted to communicate fully and confidentially with defense counsel immediately prior to and during the preliminary arraignment. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. McLaughlin, 500 U.S. 44 (1991); Pa.R.Crim.P. 540(E). Note: The determination of probable cause may be based on written affidavits, an oral statement under oath, or both. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 540.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Informing defendant of the charges and his/her rights. At the preliminary arraignment, the MDJ shall not question the defendant about the offenses charged but shall read the complaint to him/her. The MDJ shall also inform him/her:	Pa.R.Crim.P. 540(F). Note: MDJS Form 650 is the Notice of License Suspension for persons charged with violations of 18 Pa.C.S. §§ 6307, 6308, or 6310.3 (underage drinking related offenses) or 24 P.S. § 13-1333 (truancy).

Give the defendant, both orally and in writing, notice: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Of the date, time, and place of the preliminary hearing; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. That failure to appear without cause for the preliminary hearing will be deemed a waiver by the defendant of his/her right to be present at any further proceedings before the MDJ, and will result in the case proceeding in the defendant's absence and in the issuance of an arrest warrant; and <input type="checkbox"/> iii. That if the case is held for court at the preliminary hearing and the defendant fails to appear without cause at any proceeding for which his/her presence is required, including the trial, the defendant's absence may be deemed a waiver of the right to be present, and the proceedings may be conducted in defendant's absence. <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Bail. After the preliminary arraignment, if the defendant is detained, he/she shall be given an immediate and reasonable opportunity to post bail, secure counsel, and notify others of the arrest. Thereafter, if the defendant does not post bail, he/she shall be committed to jail as provided by law. <input type="checkbox"/> 8. Acceptance of monetary bail condition. If a monetary condition of bail is set, the MDJ shall accept payment of the monetary condition as provided in Pa.R.Crim.P. 528 (see Checklist 5-6(6)) at any time prior to the return of the docket transcript to the court of common pleas. <input type="checkbox"/> 9. E. PRELIMINARY HEARING

1. Preliminary Hearing Procedures

At the preliminary hearing, the MDJ determines whether the Commonwealth has established a prima facie case against the defendant and, if so, holds or binds over him/her for court. The MDJ may also set bail (if it has not already been set), or continue or modify an existing bail order (if bail has already been set). Checklist 5-9 below sets forth the procedures for a preliminary hearing.

Checklist 5-9: Preliminary Hearing Procedures	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Waiver of the preliminary hearing. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Who may waive. A defendant who is represented by counsel may waive the preliminary hearing at the preliminary arraignment or at any time thereafter. A defendant who is not represented by counsel at the preliminary arraignment may not waive the preliminary hearing at that time. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Certification. If the defendant waives the preliminary hearing and consents to be bound over to court, the defendant and defense attorney, if any, shall certify in writing that: (1) the MDJ told the defendant of his/her right to have a preliminary hearing; (2) if represented by counsel, that the defendant understands that by waiving the right to the preliminary hearing he/she is later precluded from challenging sufficiency of the prima facie case; and (3) the defendant voluntarily waives the hearing and consents to be bound over to court. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Conduct of the preliminary hearing. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Prosecution. The attorney for the Commonwealth may appear at the preliminary	Pa.R.Crim.P. 541. Pa.R.Crim.P. 541(A) & (B). Pa.R.Crim.P. 541(C). Note: MDJS Form 601 is the Waiver of Preliminary Hearing form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(A)(1)-(2).

hearing, take charge of the prosecution, and recommend to the MDJ that the defendant be discharged or bound over to court according to law. If no attorney for the Commonwealth appears, the affiant may be permitted to ask questions of any witness who testifies. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Defendant's rights. The defendant shall be present at the preliminary hearing except as may be provided in the Rules of Criminal Procedure and may: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Be represented by counsel; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Cross-examine witnesses and inspect physical evidence offered against him/her; <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Call witnesses on his/her behalf, other than witnesses who will only testify as to defendant's good reputation;	Note: MDJS Form 605 is the Subpoena form. Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(B). Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C). Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C)(1). Note: For the procedures for appointment of counsel, see Checklist 3-2. Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C)(2). Note: The MDJ may limit cross-examination in certain circumstances. See e.g., Commonwealth v. Fox, 619 A.2d 327, 332 (Pa. Super. 1993) (finding MDJ was allowed to limit defendant's cross-examination at preliminary hearing as to witness's credibility as credibility was not an issue at a preliminary hearing). Note: The Commonwealth is not required to call all of its witnesses at the preliminary hearing. See Commonwealth v. Rashed, 436 A.2d 134, 137 (Pa. 1981) (stating that defendant was not denied his right to confront witnesses because the Commonwealth did not call an eyewitness at a preliminary hearing). Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C)(3). Note: The defendant is permitted to call witnesses only to negate the existence of a prima facie case and not for the purpose of discovering the Commonwealth's case. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 542.

<input type="checkbox"/> iv. Offer evidence on his/her own behalf and testify; and <input type="checkbox"/> v. Make written notes of the proceedings, or have counsel do so, or make a stenographic, mechanical, or electronic recording of the proceedings. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Interpreter. In addition, if a principal party in interest or a witness is a person with limited English proficiency or is deaf, an interpreter may have to be appointed. See Section XI for a discussion of the requirements and procedures for appointment of an interpreter. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Summary offenses. In cases where a summary offense is joined with a misdemeanor, felony or murder charge, the MDJ shall not proceed on the summary offense except as provided in Pa.R.Crim.P. 543(F) (see Checklist 5-9(4)(d), below). <input type="checkbox"/> e. Sequestration of witnesses. At the request of a party or on his/her own, the MDJ may order witnesses sequestered so they cannot learn the testimony of other witnesses. Certain persons may not be sequestered, such as: (1) a party who is a natural person; (2) an officer or employee of a party which is not a natural person (such as a corporation or the Commonwealth) designated as its representative by its attorney; (3) a person whose presence is shown by a party to be essential to the presentation of the party's case; or (4) a person authorized by statute or rule. <input type="checkbox"/> f. Suppression motion. A motion to suppress evidence in a court case should be brought in an omnibus pretrial motion filed with the clerk of courts of the court of common pleas and thus should not be disposed of by the MDJ. <input type="checkbox"/> g. Prima facie case. At the preliminary hearing, the Commonwealth bears the burden of establishing a prima facie case. The MDJ shall determine from the evidence presented whether there is a prima facie case that: (1) an offense has been committed; and (2) the defendant committed it.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C)(4). Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(C)(5). 42 Pa.C.S. § 4401 et seq.; See also Unified Judicial System Language Access Plan. Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(F). Pa.R.E. 615. Note: A "natural person" is a human being. 2. Procedure Following Arrest on a Bench Warrant

As discussed above (Checklist 5-9(4)(b)(iii)(D)), there is a narrow circumstance under which an MDJ could issue a bench warrant for a defendant's failure to appear for a preliminary hearing. Specifically, pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 543(D)(3)(d), if an MDJ is conducting a preliminary hearing in the defendant's absence and must subsequently continue the hearing for some reason other than the defendant's absence, the MDJ may issue a bench warrant. (See Checklist 5-9 of Section V for Rule 543(D)(3)(d)). The procedures set forth in Checklist 5-10 below would apply to this very limited situation. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

F. GUILTY PLEAS BEFORE MDJS IN COURT CASES

Although typically an MDJ's power to adjudicate criminal matters is limited to summary cases, he/she is empowered by statute to handle certain guilty pleas in certain types of court cases. 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 1515(a)(5), (5.1), (6), (6.1), and (7). Rule 550, discussed below, provides the procedures to implement this expanded jurisdiction. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 550. It is important to note, however, that in your judicial district this jurisdiction may be affected by local rule or by order of the president judge.

VI. CIVIL ACTIONS

A. INTRODUCTION

Civil actions discussed in this section concern claims (except against the Commonwealth) in which the amount demanded does not exceed $12,000 (exclusive of interests and costs) in the following causes of action: (1) contracts (except in cases where title to real estate may be in question; in such cases, see Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 513, Checklist 7-9, for procedure), (2) trespass for damages to one's person, property, or relationships with others; and (3) for fines and penalties by any government agency. 42 Pa.C.S. § 1515(a)(3). Other types of civil actions that may come before an MDJ such as landlord/tenant matters and protection from abuse actions are discussed in Sections VII and VIII, respectively.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law, and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such local rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. RECORD AND TRANSCRIPT

Checklist 6-1: Record and Transcript	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Record. The record of any proceeding before an MDJ, including proof of service, returns, entry of judgment, and other matters, appearing on a form prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania shall, for all purposes, be considered to be a sufficient record of the proceedings.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 205(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Transcript. A copy of any record appearing on a form prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania (certified as true by the MDJ in whose office it is on file) or by any other official custodian, shall, for all purposes, be considered sufficient transcript of the record, including any judgment, order, or other disposition contained therein.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 205(B).

C. COSTS

1. Generally

Checklist 6-2: Costs, Generally	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Costs for filing and service shall be paid by the plaintiff at the time of filing.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. The prevailing party may recover taxable costs that are authorized by statute or rule and that have been paid by the prevailing party.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(B). Note: Mailing costs are not recoverable. Comment to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. The losing party shall also pay any taxable costs on appeal. For purposes of this rule, a plaintiff who appeals shall be considered a losing party on appeal if he/she does not obtain a more favorable judgment on appeal than that obtained in the MDJ court.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(C).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. A defendant prevailing in certiorari proceedings brought by the defendant, or who obtains a favorable judgment on appeal by either party, shall not be liable for costs incurred by the plaintiff in the MDJ court, and may recover taxable costs from the plaintiff.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(C).
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. A plaintiff who loses at the MDJ level may recover taxable costs for that proceeding from the defendant if the plaintiff is successful on appeal. In this situation, the defendant may not recover costs in the MDJ proceeding from the plaintiff.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(C).
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. The provisions of this rule do not apply to proceedings brought pursuant to the Protection from Abuse Act, 23 Pa.C.S. § 6101 et seq. or Protection of Victims of Sexual Violence and Intimidation Act, 42 Pa.C.S. § 62A01 et seq.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(D).

2. In Forma Pauperis (IFP) Status for Persons Unable to Pay Costs

Checklist 6-3: Costs – IFP Status	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. A party who is financially unable to pay costs shall be entitled to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(1).

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. A party desiring to proceed IFP shall file a petition and affidavit with the MDJ, who shall decide the petition within 5 days of its filing.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(2). Note: Rule 206(E)(6) contains an example of an IFP petition. MDJS Form 622A constitutes the IFP Affidavit/Petition forms.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. If the MDJ denies the IFP petition, in whole or in part, he/she shall briefly state the reasons for the denial.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(2).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. If the party petitioning for IFP status is represented by counsel, the party shall be permitted to proceed IFP upon the filing of a praecipe containing a certification by counsel that he/she is providing the party with free legal services and that he/she believes the party is financially unable to pay the costs.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(3).
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. If the MDJ permits the party to proceed IFP, the party shall not be required to pay costs and shall be informed of the option of serving the complaint by mail.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(4).
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. If the party proceeding IFP later recovers a monetary judgment or settlement, the exonerated fees shall be taxed as costs and paid by the unsuccessful party. Under no circumstances, however, shall the exonerated costs be paid to the indigent party.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 206(E)(5).

D. COMPLAINT

1. Complaint Contents and Procedure

Checklist 6-4: Venue/Complaint Contents and Procedure	Authority/Notes

<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Notice of intent to defend. If the defendant gives the MDJ court notice of intent to defend as provided in Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 305(4)(a) (see Checklist 6-4(4)(a) above), the MDJ court shall promptly give the plaintiff written notice that the defendant intends to enter a defense.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 318. Note: No specific form of notice by the defendant is prescribed in the rules; however, docket entries will show that the defendant gave notice of intent to defend and that the MDJ gave written notice to plaintiff. Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 318. MDJS Form 623 is the Notice of Intent to Defend form.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. Filing of complaint. The MDJ shall keep the original complaint. It shall be numbered consecutively in order of filing annually and filed in the manner prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 306.
<input type="checkbox"/> 7. Minor parties. A minor may be a party to a civil or landlord-tenant action before an MDJ and need not be represented by a guardian.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 802.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Entitlement of complaint. The complaint in an action in which a minor is a party shall be entitled in the name of the minor without reference to his/her minority or any guardian.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 803.
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Service of complaint on minor. Service of a complaint or cross-complaint upon a minor shall be in the same manner as that prescribed for service on an adult party (see Checklist 6-5).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 804.

<input type="checkbox"/> 8. Incapacitated person. An incapacitated person may be a party to a civil or landlord-tenant action before an MDJ if he/she is represented by a court appointed guardian.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 809.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Entitlement of complaint. The complaint in an action in which an incapacitated person is a party shall be entitled in the name of the incapacitated person followed by the phrase "an incapacitated person, represented by A, Guardian." The address of the incapacitated person and that of the guardian shall be shown on the complaint form.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 810.
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Service of complaint on the incapacitated person. Service of a complaint or cross-complaint upon an incapacitated person shall be upon his/her guardian and shall be made in accordance with Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 307, 308, and 315 (see Checklists 6-4(10) and 6-5(1)-(3)).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 811.
<input type="checkbox"/> c. If MDJ subsequently learns that a person is incapacitated. Except as provided below, if during the pendency of the action the MDJ learns that a party not designated in the complaint as incapacitated is in fact incapacitated, the MDJ shall dismiss the proceedings without prejudice. The MDJ's finding shall be based upon on the fact that the party has a guardian appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 813(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> i. If the incapacitated person is one of several defendants or plaintiffs. If the party found incapacitated above is one of several plaintiffs or defendants, the proceedings shall only be dismissed as to him/her.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 813(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> ii. Amendment of complaint. A complaint filed by an incapacitated person who is not designated as such in the complaint may be amended by his/her guardian at any time during the pendency of the action before judgment, to state that the party is an incapacitated person represented by his/her guardian. A complaint filed against an incapacitated person not	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 813(C).

<input type="checkbox"/> 10. Claim by defendant (cross-complaint).
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Claims that can be raised. A defendant who files a complaint at least five (5) days prior to the date set for the hearing may assert in the case any claim against the plaintiff that is within MDJ jurisdiction.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315(A). Note: If the complaint is not filed 5 days prior to the hearing, it may still be filed, but will not be processed as a cross-complaint. Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315.
No cross-complaint may be filed in a supplementary action filed pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 342. See Checklist 6-8(6) below.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 342(C); Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315 and 342.
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Applicable rules. The rules governing form, processing, and service of the plaintiff's complaint shall also apply to the defendant's complaint.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Scheduling of consolidated hearing. The MDJ shall set a date and time for a consolidated hearing on both complaints that shall be not less than 12 or more than 30 days from the filing of defendant's complaint. The MDJ shall promptly notify the parties of the date and time set for the consolidated hearing of both complaints.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Judgment on cross-complaint. A money judgment for the plaintiff or the defendant, but not both, shall be entered with respect to cross-complaints, with any lesser amount found due on one claim being deducted from the greater amount found due on the other.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315(C). Note: If the MDJ feels that it would be helpful to aid the parties to understand the decision, he/she can include calculations with the judgment to explain how it was obtained.
<input type="checkbox"/> 11. Amendment of complaint. The complaint may only be amended at the hearing in the presence of the adverse party or his/her representative. Amendments other than	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 316.

those as to the form of the complaint constitute grounds for a continuance. See Checklist 6-6 for Continuances. <input type="checkbox"/> 12. Adding parties. When considering amendments to the complaint, the MDJ should also keep in mind that the general rules of civil procedure for MDJ matters specifically prohibit adding parties after the complaint has been filed.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 210(2).

E. HEARING PROCEDURE

1. Continuances and Withdrawal of Complaint Prior to Hearing

Checklist 6-6: Continuances; Withdrawal of Complaint	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Prior to the hearing, the MDJ may grant continuances for cause or by agreement. All agreements to continue the matter must be to a specific time and date that shall be noted on the complaint.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(A) & (B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. If a continuance is granted, the MDJ shall give the parties notice of the continuance.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Except for good cause, the MDJ may not grant more than one continuance, and the aggregate of all continuances shall not extend the hearing date to 90 days beyond the date on which the plaintiff filed the complaint.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(C). Note: For landlord-tenant actions, the aggregate of all continuances shall not extend the hearing date beyond 30 days from the date the complaint is filed. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(C)(2)(b); see also Checklist 7-7(3) in Section VII.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. The following are cause for granting a continuance: <input type="checkbox"/> a. A party’s attorney of record is scheduled to appear at a proceeding under the attorney disciplinary rules (as counsel, special master, hearing committee member, or member of the Disciplinary Board). <input type="checkbox"/> b. A party’s attorney of record is scheduled to appear at any judicial discipline proceeding (as counsel or as a member of the Court of Judicial	Pa.R.Crim.P. 209(D).

Continuances and stays shall be granted in compliance with federal and state laws (e.g., the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C. §§ 3901 et seq.). <input type="checkbox"/> 6. As stated above (Checklist 6-4(12)), any amendments to the complaint, other than those as to its form, shall constitute grounds for a continuance. <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Request to withdraw complaint. Plaintiff may withdraw the complaint prior to the commencement of the hearing by filing a written notice of withdrawal with the MDJ court. Upon receipt, the MDJ court shall note the withdrawal on the docket, cancel any scheduled hearing (except a consolidated hearing on a cross-complaint pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 315(B)), and notify the parties in writing of the withdrawal. Withdrawal of the complaint prior to the hearing shall be deemed without prejudice. Plaintiff may file a new complaint on the same cause of action upon payment of all applicable fees and costs. Cross-complaints. Withdrawal of the complaint does not affect the right of a defendant to proceed with a cross-complaint. A defendant may file written notice of withdrawal of a cross-complaint in the same way a plaintiff can request withdrawal of a complaint.	Pa.R.Crim.P. 209(E). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 316. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 320(A)(1). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 320(A)(2). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 320(C)(1)-(2).

2. Conduct of the Hearing

Checklist 6-7: Conduct of the Hearing	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Plaintiff fails to appear. If a plaintiff who has received proper notice of the defendant's intention to defend and does not appear at the hearing but the defendant does, the MDJ shall either enter judgment for the defendant or continue the case for cause. If the plaintiff does not appear at the hearing and the defendant does, but the plaintiff has not been given proper notice of the defendant's intention to defend, the case shall be continued. See Checklist 6-6 for continuances.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 319(A).

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Defendant fails to appear. If the defendant does not appear at the hearing, regardless of whether or not the plaintiff appears, the MDJ shall enter judgment for the plaintiff or continue the case for cause. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Damages. If judgment is entered for the plaintiff, the MDJ shall assess damages for the amount to which plaintiff is entitled if it is for a sum certain or which can be made certain by computation. If not, damages shall be assessed by the MDJ at a hearing at which issues shall be limited to the amount of damages. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Notice of damages hearing. If a damages hearing is held, the MDJ shall give the defendant written notice of the time and date of the hearing, which cannot be less than 10 days from the date of the notice.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 319(B). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 319(B). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 319(B). Note: MDJS Form 308 is the Hearing Notice form.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Representation: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Individuals. In MDJ proceedings, individuals may be represented by themselves, by an attorney-at-law, or by a representative with personal knowledge of the subject matter of the litigation and written authorization from the individual to appear as the individual's representative. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Partnerships. In MDJ proceedings, a partnership may be represented by an attorney-at-law, a partner, or by an employee or authorized agent of the partnership with personal knowledge of the subject matter of the litigation and written authorization from a partner to appear as the partnership's representative. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Corporations. Corporations or similar entities and unincorporated associations may be represented by an attorney-at-law; an officer of the corporation, entity, or association; or an employee or authorized agent of the corporation, entity, or association with personal knowledge of the subject matter of the litigation and written authorization from an officer of the corporation, entity, or association, to appear as its representative.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 207(A)(1). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 207(A)(2). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 207(A)(3).

<input type="checkbox"/> d. Minor party: guardian. A guardian may give notice to the court of his/her intent to represent a minor party. Only one guardian may represent the minor party. <input type="checkbox"/> e. Authorization required. A representative, employee, or authorized agent must provide written verification of their personal knowledge of the subject matter of the litigation and may take no action on behalf of the party until the written authorization required under Rule 207(A)(1)-(3), whichever is applicable, is filed with the court. <input type="checkbox"/> f. Pro hac vice admission under Pa.B.A.R. 301 shall proceed by request. The content and disposition of the request shall conform to Pa.R.C.P. 1012.1. To gain admission under Pa.B.A.R. 301, the applicant must seek approval by the IOLTA Board before the sponsor’s request for admission before the MDJ court. <input type="checkbox"/> g. Entry of appearance by attorney. To be considered the attorney of record for a party, an attorney-at-law shall file a notice with the MDJ acknowledging that he/she represents the party. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Subpoenas. An MDJ has the power to issue subpoenas throughout the Commonwealth upon the request of a party. The subpoena may not be issued in blank. The subpoena may be served by a competent adult. The MDJ may subpoena witnesses to require them to attend, and may also require witnesses to produce documents or things in their possession, control, or custody. A subpoena may not be used to force a person to appear or to produce documents or other things ex parte before an attorney, a party or a party's representative. Minors. If the subpoenaed witness is under the age of 18, his or her parent or guardian shall be served with a copy of the subpoena in the manner set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 214.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 805. Note: MDJS Form 610 is the Guardian's Notice of Intent to Represent Minor Party form. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 207(B). Note: MDJS Form 317 is the Authorization of Representative form for individuals (except minors), partnerships and corporations. 3. Writ of Certiorari

Checklist 6-11: Writ of Certiorari	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Filing of writ/bond. A party aggrieved by the judgment--except the plaintiff--may file a praecipe for writ of certiorari with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas seeking to have the judgment set aside on the grounds of: (a) lack of jurisdiction over the subject or parties; (b) improper venue; or (c) such gross irregularity of procedure as to make judgment void. The plaintiff may only petition for writ of certiorari based upon the last ground. No bond or other security shall be required for the issuance of a writ of certiorari.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(A). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1010.

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. No certiorari and appeal. A judgment cannot be the subject of both an appeal and certiorari. The prothonotary is to mark as stricken any writ of certiorari concerning a judgment as to which appeal is pending if proof of service of the notice of appeal has been filed. If the appeal is stricken or voluntarily terminated, the writ of certiorari shall be reinstated upon praecipe of the party obtaining the writ.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1015.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Time for filing. If lack of jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter is claimed, the praecipe may be filed at any time after judgment. Otherwise it shall be filed within 30 days after the date of the judgment.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Content of the praecipe. The praecipe shall identify the judgment complained of and the MDJ in whose office the record of the proceedings is filed. The praecipe and the writ shall be on a form which shall be prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(C). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(D). Note: AOPC Form 25 is the Writ of Certiorari form.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Issuance and service of writ. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Issuance. Upon receipt of the praecipe for a writ of certiorari, the prothonotary shall issue the writ and direct it to the MDJ in whose office the record of the proceedings containing the judgment is filed, and it shall be delivered for service to the party who filed the praecipe. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Service. The party obtaining the writ shall serve it by either personal service or certified or registered mail upon the MDJ to whom it was directed. Similarly, he/she shall also serve it upon the opposing party. Service and proof of service may be made by attorney or other agent. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Failure to serve. If proof of service on the MDJ and the opposite party is not filed with the prothonotary within 5 days after delivery of the writ for service, the prothonotary shall, upon praecipe of the opposite party, mark the writ stricken and the writ shall not be reinstated nor shall any new writ be issued.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1011(A). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1011(B). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1011(D). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1011(C).

<input type="checkbox"/> 6. Return of writ by the MDJ. The MDJ to whom the writ is directed shall make a return of the writ by sending a certified true copy of the record containing the judgment to the prothonotary within 10 days after receiving the writ.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1012.
<input type="checkbox"/> 7. Writ as supersedeas.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Civil actions other than landlord/tenant. Receipt of the writ by the MDJ will act as a supersedeas.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1013(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Landlord/tenant actions for possession of real property. If the judgment concerns possession of real property, the writ shall act as a supersedeas only if the party obtaining the writ deposits a sum of money with the prothonotary equal to the lesser of 3 months rent or the rent actually in arrears as of the date of filing of the praecipe, and makes subsequent deposits of monthly rent every 30 days. See section VII for landlord/tenant actions.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1013(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Termination. If the writ is stricken, dismissed, or discontinued, any supersedeas based on it shall terminate.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1013(D).

H. MISCELLANEOUS

1. Bankruptcy Stay

The filing of a petition for bankruptcy under the United States Bankruptcy Code will automatically stay the proceedings against the defendant under certain circumstances. 11 U.S.C. § 362. The automatic stay is subject to exceptions that may be applicable. The automatic stay and the relevant exceptions to it are discussed in Checklist 6-14 below.

Checklist 6-14: Bankruptcy Stay	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Automatic stay. The filing of a bankruptcy petition stays the following actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> a. "The commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of [the bankruptcy case], or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the [bankruptcy case]"; <input type="checkbox"/> b. "The enforcement, against the debtor or against property of the estate, of a judgment obtained before the commencement of the [bankruptcy case]"; and <input type="checkbox"/> c. "Any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over the property of the estate." <input type="checkbox"/> d. "Any act to create, perfect, or enforce any lien against property of the estate"; <input type="checkbox"/> e. "Any act to create, perfect, or enforce against property of the debtor any lien to the extent that such lien secures a claim that arose before the commencement of the [bankruptcy case]"; <input type="checkbox"/> f. "Any act to collect, assess, or recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the [bankruptcy case]"; <input type="checkbox"/> g. "The setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the [bankruptcy case] against any claim against the debtor; and <input type="checkbox"/> h. "The commencement or continuation of a proceeding before the United States Tax Court concerning a corporate debtor's tax liability . . ." <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Exceptions to automatic stay. A bankruptcy petition does not act as a stay to the following actions that may come before an MDJ:	11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(1). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(2). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(4). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(5). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(6). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(7). 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(8).

VII. LANDLORD/TENANT

A. INTRODUCTION

A landlord is the owner of a property who leases it to another party while a tenant is a party who occupies the property of the landlord with his/her express or implied consent. Black's Law Dictionary (6th ed. 1990). Id. at 1466. Two major types of landlord/tenant actions, or a combination of both, may come before an MDJ.

First, a landlord may bring an action to recover monetary damages against a tenant to recover for injury to, or unjust detention of, the property, for rent remaining due, and for the costs of the proceeding. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 514(A). These types of actions are civil actions before the MDJ (provided that the amount of damages claimed does not exceed the MDJ's jurisdictional limit) and are discussed in Section VI. (civil actions). Second, a landlord may bring an action for possession of the property to remove a tenant or to otherwise regain possession, a process commonly known as eviction. Id.; Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 515(A). The tenant-defendant can also file a cross-complaint in an eviction action. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 508(A). In addition to these actions, other civil actions may arise from the landlord/tenant relationship that are governed by general civil procedure discussed in Section VI. of this bench book. For example, suits alleging violations of the Manufactured Home Community Rights Act (formerly the Mobile Home Park Rights Act), conversion actions by a tenant against a landlord concerning property left behind, and civil actions by a tenant against a landlord for illegal retention of a security deposit. Actions concerning recovery of self-service storage facilities are not landlord/tenant actions; these actions are discussed in Section XI, Checklist 11-5.

Sections B through H discuss actions to evict tenants and regain possession of the leasehold premises and accompanying claims for monetary damages. Section I discusses miscellaneous landlord/tenant issues such as mobile/manufactured homes, abandonment and surrender of leased premises, the implied warranty of habitability, the covenant of quiet enjoyment, security deposits, the Plain Language Act, and the automatic bankruptcy stay.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that may also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. RECORD AND TRANSCRIPT

Checklist 7-1: Record and Transcript	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Record. The record of any proceeding before an MDJ, including proof of service, returns, entry of judgment, and other matters, appearing on a form prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania shall, for all purposes, be considered a sufficient record of the proceedings. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Transcript. A copy of any record appearing on a form prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania certified as true by the MDJ in whose office it is on file or by any other official custodian, shall for all purposes be considered sufficient transcript of the record, including any judgment, order, or other disposition contained therein.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 205(A). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 205(B).

C. NOTICE TO QUIT

A landlord/tenant case must proceed in a certain manner (using the Civil/Landlord/Tenant Worksheet, MDJS Form 633, is a good way for the MDJ to stay on track). The first step in the eviction process is for the landlord to provide to the tenant a notice to quit.

Checklist 7-2: Notice to Quit Requirements	Authority/Notes

E. COMPLAINT

1. Complaint Contents and Procedure

Checklist 7-4: Complaint Contents and Procedure	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. An action by a landlord against a tenant for recovery of the possession of real property may only be brought by the filing of a complaint in the magisterial district in which the property is located, in whole or part. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. What the complaint shall set forth: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> a. The names and addresses of the parties; <input type="checkbox"/> b. The location and address of the property to be recovered; <input type="checkbox"/> c. That the landlord of the property is the plaintiff; <input type="checkbox"/> d. That the landlord either leased or rented the property to the tenant; <input type="checkbox"/> e. That the tenant was given notice to remove, if notice was required under the lease; <input type="checkbox"/> f. That the lease term has ended, or that a breach of the conditions of the lease has resulted in a forfeiture, or that the rent reserved or due has remained unsatisfied; <input type="checkbox"/> g. That the tenant the real property and will not give up possession of the property; and <input type="checkbox"/> h. The amount of rent due or unpaid at the time the complaint is filed, and any additional rent that will remain due and unpaid at the time of the hearing as well as the amount of any physical damages claimed for injury to or unjust detention of the property. <input type="checkbox"/> i. The complaint shall be signed by the landlord (or agent) and contain a verification pursuant to 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (Unsworn Falsifications to Authorities). <input type="checkbox"/> j. For each individual tenant the landlord (or agent) shall attach an affidavit indicating that the tenant is in military service, is not in military service, or that landlord is unable to determine whether tenant is in the service. 	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 502. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 503(B)(1)-(8). Note: Form 310A is the standard form landlord/tenant complaint. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 503(C). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 503(D). Note: Requiring this information ensures that an eligible tenant receives the protections of the Service Members Civil Relief Act, 50 U.S.C.

	§ 3901. Comment to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 503.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. At the time the complaint is filed, the MDJ shall set a hearing date which may not be less than 7 nor more than 15 days from the date the complaint was filed.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 504(1).

F. HEARING PROCEDURE

1. Continuances

Checklist 7-7: Continuances	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Prior to the hearing, the MDJ may grant continuances for cause or by agreement . All agreements to continue the matter shall be to a specific time and date that shall be noted on the complaint.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(A) & (B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. If a continuance is granted, the MDJ shall give the parties notice of the continuance on a Notice of Continuance form.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Except for good cause, the MDJ may not grant more than one continuance , and the aggregate of all continuances shall not extend the hearing date to 30 days beyond the date on which the landlord filed the complaint.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 209(C).

the record, including any judgment, order, or other disposition contained therein. □ 8. Contract issues the MDJ may encounter. The interpretation of a lease, whether written or not, is governed by principles of contract law. As a result, questions concerning the formation and interpretation of the lease may come before the MDJ as part of the proceeding. □ a. Lease formation. A lease may be found where it is "the intention of one party to voluntarily dispossess himself of the premises, for a consideration, and of the other to assume the possession for a prescribed period." Generally, when a lease for a term expires and the lessee remains on the premises, the landlord may treat the tenant as a hold-over and the law implies--absent evidence of a contrary intent--the same term, covenants, and conditions as the old lease. Evidence of contrary intent may include negotiations for a new lease. Written. A lease for more than 3 years shall be in writing; a lease for 3 years or less does not have to be in writing. Lead paint. Federal law states that the failure of a landlord to provide disclosure of lead paint hazards when the leasehold premises were built before 1978, may affect the validity of the lease. □ b. Lease interpretation. When a court reviews a contract the intent of the parties is paramount, and the court's objective is to ascertain the parties' intent as it is "manifestly expressed in the agreement itself." The intent of the parties to a written contract is considered embodied in the writing itself. In the absence of technical language, words used in the agreement are to be given their plain and ordinary meaning. □ 9. Advanced communication technology. The MDJ may authorized the use of advanced communication technology during any civil proceeding or action governed by the MDJ Civil Rules.	Warren v. Greenfield, 595 A.2d 1308, 1311 (Pa. 3. Disputes Over Title to the Property

A tenant may raise as a defense the fact that the title to the leasehold premises is in dispute and claimed either by a person other than the landlord or by the tenant. See Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 513(A). Such a defense shall be raised by the tenant—and the MDJ shall act—in the manner set forth in Checklist 7-9 below.

Checklist 7-9: Disputes Over Title to the Property	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Mandatory stay--when a third-party claims title. The MDJ shall stay the proceedings provided the third-party person claiming title files a satisfactory bond in the court of common pleas conditioned on prosecuting his/her claim in that court, if: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The tenant declares in writing and upon oath/affirmation that title to the property at issue is disputed and claimed by a named person (other than the landlord) by virtue of a right or title accruing by descent from or deed or will of the landlord since the commencement of the lease; and <input type="checkbox"/> b. The other person also declares in writing upon oath/affirmation that he/she truly believes he/she is entitled to the property. The other person claiming title need not appear in person before the MDJ.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 513(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Mandatory stay--when tenant claims title. The MDJ shall stay the proceedings, as long as the tenant claiming title files a satisfactory bond in the court of common pleas conditioned on prosecuting his/her claim in that court, if: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The tenant declares in writing and upon oath/affirmation that the property is held or	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 513(B).

claimed by him/her as a joint tenant or tenant in common with the landlord; and <input type="checkbox"/> b. The tenant truly believes that the property held does not exceed in quantity or value the just portion of his/her share as joint tenant or tenant in common. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Forfeiture of bond/removal of stay. If the claim is not prosecuted in the court of common pleas in accordance with the conditions of the bond, the bond shall be forfeited to the landlord and the eviction matter shall proceed to judgment.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 513(A) & (B).

4. Decision and Damages

Checklist 7-10: Decision and Damages	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Timing of entry of judgment. The MDJ can enter judgment at the conclusion of the hearing or within 3 days. Upon entry of the judgment, the MDJ shall promptly give or mail to the parties written notice of the judgment or dismissal. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Content of judgment. If the landlord is successful at the hearing, the MDJ shall enter judgment against the tenant by separate entries: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Ordering delivery of the property to the landlord; <input type="checkbox"/> b. For any rent which remains due; <input type="checkbox"/> c. For any damages for unjust detention of the premises; <input type="checkbox"/> d. For any physical damage to the property; <input type="checkbox"/> e. For the costs of the proceedings; and <input type="checkbox"/> f. For the amount of any security deposit applied as an offset to the judgment, if applicable. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Amount due on cross-complaint. The judgment due the landlord shall be reduced by any amount due to the tenant on his/her cross-complaint, if applicable.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 514(D). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 514(A). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 514(A).

G. APPEALS & SUPERSEDEAS; WRIT OF CERTIORARI

1. Procedure for Filing an Appeal

Checklist 7-11: Procedure for Filing an Appeal	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Time for appeal. The time period for appeal varies depending on the nature of the judgment and the tenant. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Nonresidential lease. A party aggrieved by either a judgment for money or judgment for possession of real property arising from a nonresidential lease may appeal within 30 days from entry of the judgment. The prothonotary of the court of common pleas is not permitted to accept an appeal more than 30 days from the entry of judgment "without leave of the court and for good cause shown." <input type="checkbox"/> b. Residential lease, judgment for possession. Except in situations where the tenant is a victim of domestic violence (see below), a party	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(A). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(B)(1).

aggrieved by a judgment for possession of real property arising out of a residential lease shall file a notice of appeal within 10 days of the date of entry of judgment. The prothonotary of the court of common pleas is not permitted to accept an appeal more than 10 days from the entry of judgment "without leave of the court and for good cause shown." □ c. Residential lease – victim of domestic violence. A tenant who is aggrieved by a judgment for the delivery of possession of real property arising out of a residential lease, and who is a victim of domestic violence, may appeal within 30 days after the date of the entry of judgment by filing a notice of appeal with the prothonotary on a form that shall be prescribed by the AOPC, with a copy of the Notice of Judgment issued by the MDJ, and a Domestic Violence Affidavit. The Domestic Violence Affidavit shall be on a form prescribed by the AOPC, and affirm that the tenant is a victim of domestic violence. It shall contain the tenant's verification pursuant to 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 (Unsworn Falsifications to Authorities). The Affidavit shall contain the name of the tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, the name of the perpetrator, the perpetrator's relationship to the tenant, and the docket number for any protection from abuse case involving the tenant who is a victim of domestic violence and the perpetrator, as well as a verification by the tenant. The Affidavit is not a public record and shall not be publically accessible. □ d. Residential lease, judgment for possession and monetary damages. In situations where the plaintiff in a residential lease seeks both judgment for possession and monetary damages, the applicable appeal period is the shorter 10 day period.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(B)(2)(a). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(B)(2)(b); Official Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(B)(2)(c). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(B)(2)(d). Cherry Ridge Development v. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Notice of appeal. The notice of appeal together with a copy of the notice of judgment shall be filed with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas utilizing the form prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1002(A) & (B). AOPC Forms 312 and 312A.

2. Supersedeas (Stay)

Checklist 7-12: Supersedeas (Stay) Procedure	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Appeals from monetary judgments: The receipt by the MDJ of a copy of the notice of appeal will act as a supersedeas for that portion of the judgment awarding monetary damages.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(A) & the accompanying note.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Appeals from judgments for possession:
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Initial deposit of money/bond. Except as stated in 3. below, the notice of appeal will only act as a supersedeas if the tenant-appellant, at the time he/she files the notice of appeal, deposits a sum of money or bond equal to the lesser of 3 months' rent or the rent actually in arrears on the date of judgment (as determined by the MDJ pursuant to Rule 514(A)--see Checklist 7-10 above). If the tenant makes the required deposit, the prothonotary of the court of common pleas shall note on the notice of appeal that it will act as a supersedeas when it is received by the MDJ.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Subsequent deposits of money/bond. The tenant shall subsequently deposit cash or bond with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas equal to the monthly rent that comes due while the matter is pending on appeal. These subsequent payments are due within 30 days of the date of the appeal and each subsequent 30-day period thereafter.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Release of monies. A landlord can apply to the court of common pleas to release money from	68 P.S. § 250.513(c). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(B).

escrow as compensation for the tenant's possession and use of the property while the appeal is pending. Similarly, the tenant may apply to the court for release of sums to compensate the providers of habitable services which the landlord is required to provide under law or under the lease	68 P.S. § 250.513(d).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Termination of the supersedeas. In the following situations, the notice of appeal will not act automatically as a supersedeas unless the applicable requirements are met.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Judgment for possession of real property - failure to deposit money/bond. If tenant fails to deposit the sums required by Rule 1008(B) (Checklist 7-12(2)) when they are due, the prothonotary of the court of common pleas shall, upon praecipe filed by the landlord, terminate the supersedeas. Notice of termination shall be given by first class mail to all parties except if a party has an attorney of record, in which case the notice will be sent to the attorney.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Indigent tenants. Residential tenants seeking to appeal a judgment for possession and who lack the ability to pay the required money are required to file a tenant's affidavit with the prothonotary in the form required by Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(2).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(1).
If the rent has been paid for the month the notice of appeal is filed, tenant shall pay into escrow with the prothonotary the monthly rent in 30 day intervals from the date the notice is filed.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(3)(a).
If the rent has not been paid at the time the notice of appeal is filed, tenant shall pay: at the time the notice is filed, an amount equal to 1/3 the monthly rent; an additional 2/3 of the rent within 20 days of filing the notice; and additional deposits of full monthly rent each thirty days after the notice of appeal was filed.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(3)(b).
The amount of the monthly rent is the amount the MDJ finds pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(3)(b)(iii).

514(B) (see Checklist 7-10(4)). If, however, tenant is a participant in the Section 8 program, he/she shall pay the tenant share of the rent set forth in the “Section 8 Tenant Supersedeas Affidavit” set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(C)(2). <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Appeal stricken or voluntarily terminated. If the appeal is stricken or voluntarily terminated, the supersedeas will terminate and the prothonotary of the court of common pleas will pay the deposited rent to the party who sought possession of the property. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. MDJ judgements submitted to compulsory arbitration—effect on supersedeas. In some judicial districts, appeals of MDJ judgments are submitted to compulsory arbitration pursuant to Pa.R.C.P. 1301—1314. If the prothonotary enters an award for possession on the docket in favor of the landlord after arbitration and the tenant fails to maintain the supersedeas required by Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008 prior to the prothonotary's entry of judgment on the award, the landlord may terminate the supersedeas pursuant to Rule 1008(B) and request an order of possession from the MDJ pursuant to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 515 (see Checklist 7-14). If the prothonotary enters an award on the docket in favor of the tenant and the tenant fails to maintain the supersedeas prior to the prothonotary entering judgment on the award, landlord may not obtain an order of possession between the time that the prothonotary enters the award on the docket and the time that the landlord files a notice of appeal.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008(D). Official Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1008; see also Official Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 515, 516, and 1007.

3. Writ of Certiorari

Checklist 7-13: Writ of Certiorari	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Filing of writ. A defendant may file a praecipe for a writ of certiorari with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas seeking to have the judgment set aside on the grounds of: (a) lack of jurisdiction over the subject or parties, (b) improper venue or (c) such gross irregularity of procedure as to make judgment void. The plaintiff may only petition for writ of certiorari based upon the last ground.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(A).

No bond or other security shall be required for the issuance of a writ of certiorari.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1010.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. No certiorari and appeal. A judgment cannot be the subject of both an appeal and certiorari. The prothonotary is to mark as stricken any writ of certiorari concerning a judgment as to which appeal is pending if proof of service of the notice of appeal has been filed. If the appeal is stricken or voluntarily terminated, the writ of certiorari shall be reinstated upon praecipe of the party obtaining the writ.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1015.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Time for filing. If lack of jurisdiction over the parties or subject matter is claimed, the praecipe may be filed at any time after judgment. Otherwise, it shall be filed within 30 days after the date of the judgment.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(B).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Content of the praecipe. The praecipe shall identify the judgment complained of and the MDJ in whose office the record of the proceedings is filed. The praecipe and the writ shall be on a form which shall be prescribed by the court administrator of Pennsylvania.	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(C). Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1009(D). H. EXECUTION

After judgment has been entered, and assuming no supersedeas is in effect, the next step for the victorious plaintiff-landlord is to execute on the judgment. The plaintiff-landlord shall proceed before the MDJ and may not engage in self-help repossessions. Wofford v. Vavreck, 22 Pa. D. & C.3d 444, 448 (Crawford 1981). The procedure for execution varies depending on whether the plaintiff-landlord seeks to execute a judgment solely for money, a judgment solely for possession, or a combination of both. If executing a judgment solely for money, the MDJ should follow the procedure for execution of judgments in civil cases discussed in Section VI. of this bench book. If executing a judgment for possession or a judgment for possession plus damages for injury to or unjust detention of the premises, the next step is for the plaintiff-landlord to obtain an order for possession from the MDJ.

1. Order for Possession

Checklist 7-14: Order for Possession Procedure	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Determine the nature of the judgment. If the plaintiff-landlord is executing on a money judgment only, the MDJ should follow the procedures set forth in Section VI. of this bench book. If the plaintiff-landlord is seeking possession of the premises by itself or in conjunction with: a monetary judgment for damages for injury to, or unjust detention of, the premises; for unpaid rent; or for the costs of the proceeding, the MDJ may proceed to step 2 below. If the landlord is only seeking to collect a monetary judgment for damages for injury to or unjust detention of the premises, for unpaid rent, or for the costs of the	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 521(A)-(B).

proceeding, the MDJ can proceed to Checklist 7-16 below. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Request for order of possession. The landlord shall first submit a request for an order for possession to the MDJ. The time limit for filing the request varies depending on the nature of the property: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Nonresidential leases. If the MDJ's judgment is that a nonresidential property be delivered to the landlord, the landlord may file a request for an order for possession after the 15th day following the entry of judgment. The request shall contain a statement of the judgment amount, return, and any other matters required by the rules. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Residential leases. If the judgment concerns a residential property, the landlord may file a request for an order for possession between the 10th and 180th days following entry of judgment. The request shall be filed with the MDJ and shall include a statement of the judgment amount, return, and any other matters required by the rules. Domestic Violence Affidavit. A residential lease tenant who is a victim of domestic violence may file a Domestic Violence Affidavit (see Checklist 7-10(6)) to stay execution of the order for possession until an appeal is filed. Effect of removal of supersedeas or stay. ☐ 1. Plaintiff. If the plaintiff in a possessory action obtains a judgment for damages for injury to or unjust detention of the property, for rent remaining due or for the costs of the proceedings, he/she may execute upon that judgment by levy upon the defendant's personal property in the manner set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 401 - 482 (see Section VI. of the bench book).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 521(A).
☐ 2. Defendant. If a tenant in a possessory action obtains a money judgment on a cross-complaint against the landlord, he/she may also obtain execution of judgment by levy upon the landlord's personal property in the manner set forth in Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 401 - 482 (see Section VI. of the bench book).	Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 521(B).
☐ 3. Garnishment of earnings. A prevailing landlord in a residential lease situation may seek to garnish the tenant's wages in the court of common pleas for the amount of the judgment up to either 10% of the tenant's net wages or a sum not to place the tenant below federal poverty guidelines, whichever is less. The amount subject to attachment shall have deducted from it any security deposit forfeited by the tenant pursuant to the Landlord/Tenant Act unless it has already been applied to payment for rent due on the premises. In implementing the garnishment, the landlord is required to follow the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure and any applicable local rules in the court of common pleas. The judgment of the MDJ shall reflect that portion of the judgment which is for physical damage arising from a residential lease.	42 Pa.C.S. § 8127(a)(3.1). Note: Garnishment cannot be ordered by an MDJ. 42 Pa.C.S. § 8127(a)(3.2). Note: Garnishment cannot be ordered by an MDJ. 42 Pa.C.S. § 8127(a)(3.2).

I. MISCELLANEOUS ISSUES

1. Manufactured Homes

The Manufactured Home Community Rights Act (previously known as the Mobile Homes Park Rights Act) governs evictions of manufactured home community residents who own the manufactured home and lease space in the community. 68 P.S. § 398.1 et seq. Evictions of persons who lease the manufactured home itself (as opposed to the space) are governed by the Landlord/Tenant Act. 68 P.S. §

250.501 et seq. Evictions under the Manufactured Home Community Rights Act (MHCRA) are discussed in Checklist 7-17 below.

Checklist 7-17: Manufactured Homes	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Manufactured Home Community Rights Act (MHCRA). The MHCRA governs evictions of manufactured home community residents. A manufactured home resident is "an owner of a manufactured home who leases or rents space in the manufactured home community." This term does not include a person who rents or leases the manufactured home itself. A manufactured home community is "any site, lot, field or tract of land, privately or publicly owned or operated, upon which three or more manufactured homes, occupied for dwelling or sleeping purposes, are or are intended to be located, regardless of whether or not a charge is made for such an accommodation."	68 P.S. § 398.1 et seq. 68 P.S. § 398.2. Note: Evictions of persons who lease the mobile home are governed by the Landlord/Tenant Act. 68 P.S. § 398.2.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Grounds for eviction. A manufactured home community resident or occupant can only be evicted for any of the following: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Nonpayment of rent; <input type="checkbox"/> b. A second or subsequent violation of the manufactured home community rules within a 6 month period; <input type="checkbox"/> c. A change in the use of the manufactured home community lands or parts thereof; and/or <input type="checkbox"/> d. Termination of the manufactured home community.	68 P.S. § 398.3(a). 68 P.S. § 398.3(a)(1). 68 P.S. § 398.3(a)(2). 68 P.S. § 398.3(a)(3). 68 P.S. § 398.3(a)(4).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Procedure for eviction. A resident shall be evicted in the following manner: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The resident may not be evicted by any self-help measure. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Before commencing any eviction proceeding, the manufactured home community owner shall notify the resident in writing of the particular	68 P.S. § 398.3(b). 68 P.S. § 398.3(b)(1). 68 P.S. § 398.3(b)(2).

breach or violation of the lease or community rules by certified or registered mail. <input type="checkbox"/> i. In the case of nonpayment of rent, the notice shall state that an eviction proceeding may be commenced if the manufactured home resident does not pay the overdue rent within 20 days from the date of service if the notice is given on or after April 1 and before September 1, and 30 days if given on or after September 1 and before April 1 or an additional nonpayment of rent occurring within 6 months of the giving of the notice may result in immediate eviction proceedings. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. In the case of a breach of the lease or violation of the community rules, other than the nonpayment of rent, the notice shall describe the particular breach or violation. No eviction action shall be commenced unless the manufactured home community resident has been notified as required by this section, and upon a second or subsequent violation or breach occurring within 6 months, the manufactured home community owner may commence eviction proceedings at any time within 60 days of the last violation or breach. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Notice to quit. In a manufactured home community eviction, what the notice must state varies depending on the reason eviction is being sought and the term of the lease. <input type="checkbox"/> i. Expiration of lease or breach of lease. In cases involving expiration of the lease term or breach of lease conditions where: <input type="checkbox"/> A. The lease term is for less than a year or for an indefinite term, the notice shall state that the tenant shall leave within 30 days of service of the notice; or	68 P.S. § 398.3(b)(2)(i). 68 P.S. § 398.3(b)(2)(ii). 68 P.S. § 250.501(c). 68 P.S. § 250.501(c).

<input type="checkbox"/> B. When the lease is for a year or more, the notice shall state that the tenant shall leave within 3 months of the date of service of the notice.	68 P.S. § 250.501(c).
<input type="checkbox"/> ii. Failure to pay rent. In the case of a tenant who fails, upon demand, to pay rent reserved and due, the notice--if given after April 1st and before September 1st--shall specify that the tenant shall leave within 15 days of service of the notice. If the notice is given on/after September 1st and before April 1st, the notice shall state that the tenant shall remove within 30 days from service of the notice.	68 P.S. § 250.501(c).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Unequal enforcement of community rules. A manufactured home community shall not be evicted when there is proof that the rules he/she is accused of violating are not enforced with respect to other manufactured home residents and nonresidents on the community premises.	68 P.S. § 398.3(c).
<input type="checkbox"/> e. Retaliatory eviction. Any action by a manufactured home community owner or operator to recover possession of real property from a manufactured home community resident or to change the lease within 6 months of a resident's assertion of his/her rights under the MHCRA or any other legal right shall raise a presumption that such action constitutes a retaliatory and unlawful eviction and is in violation of the MHCRA. This presumption may be rebutted by competent evidence presented in any appropriate court of initial jurisdiction within the Commonwealth.	68 P.S. § 398.16.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Other causes of action: Any manufactured home community owner, operator, or resident aggrieved by a violation of their rights under the MHCRA may file a private cause of action in any appropriate court of initial jurisdiction within the Commonwealth.	68 P.S. § 398.13.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Abandoned manufactured homes: If a manufactured home is abandoned by its resident (see below for	68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a).

determination of abandonment), the manufactured home community owner or other authorized person may enter the home, move it, assess removal and storage costs, and dispose of the home and related personal possessions.
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Entry. Enter the manufactured home and secure any appliances, furnishings, materials, supplies, or other personal property; disconnect the manufactured home from any utilities; and otherwise exercise “ordinary care” in relation to the home and personal property, including promptly disposing of perishable food and contacting an animal control agency/humane society to remove any abandoned pets.	68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a)(1).
<input type="checkbox"/> b. Moving. Move the manufactured home and any personal property within the community that is believed to belong to the resident, to a storage area either within the community or to another location deemed necessary and proper without the need to obtain a removal permit. The manufactured home shall continue to be subject to lien for any taxes assessed on it but the real estate on which it was located shall not. Prior to moving the manufactured home and personal property, the community owner shall notify the former manufactured home resident by mail and by a posting on the home and any other known address, or by any other means by which notice may be achieved, that the mobile home will be moved 60 days after the date of notice and of the new location of the home and personal property.	68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a)(2).
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Costs. Assess removal and storage charges against the former manufactured home resident.	68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a)(3).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Dispose. Dispose of the personal property and/or manufactured home after giving notice to the former resident and any lienholder. The notice shall be sent certified mail, return receipt requested or receipted first class mail to the resident’s last known address (which may be the premises) and at any alternate address(es), if known, including the address of emergency contacts, if provided. The notice must also be posted in a conspicuous location in the manufactured home community. The notice of	68 P.S. § 398.10.2(a)(4) & (c).

2. Abandonment and Surrender of Premises

Checklist 7-18: Abandonment and Surrender	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Abandonment. Abandonment is a relinquishment of the premises which justifies immediate repossession. In order to establish abandonment, there shall be found, as a matter of law, an intent to abandon and conduct by which this intention is carried out.	Turnway Corp. v. Soffer , 336 A.2d 871, 877 (Pa. 1975).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Surrender. In a lease surrender situation, there is not only an intentional relinquishment of the lease, but also an acceptance of the surrender by the landlord. The tenant has the burden of proving, by clear and convincing evidence, that the landlord accepted the surrender. It is the intention of the parties that controls. Whether there has been acceptance is a question of fact, and it must be shown that the landlord made some unequivocal act that would constitute acceptance.	Stonehedge Square L.P. v. Movie Merchants, Inc. , 685 A.2d 1019, 1023 (Pa. Super. 1996).
<input type="checkbox"/> a. Termination of lease by military personnel. Both federal and state laws allow military personnel to terminate leases after entry into military service or the receipt of orders for change of station or deployment. Both laws require written notice to the landlord.	50 U.S.C. § 3955. 51 Pa.C.S. § 7315.

3. Implied Warranty of Habitability

All residential leases contain an implied warranty of habitability. Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 903 (Pa. 1979). The tenant's obligation to pay rent and the landlord's obligation to maintain the premises in a habitable condition are mutually dependent, and a breach of one's obligation relieves the other so long as the breach continues. Pugh, 405 A.2d at 903.

Checklist 7-19: Implied Warranty of Habitability	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Purpose and scope. The implied warranty of habitability "is designed to insure that the landlord will provide facilities and services vital to the life, health, and safety of the tenant and to the use of the premises for residential purposes." Although the tenant is entitled to a safe and healthy premises, he/she is not entitled to a perfect or aesthetically pleasing dwelling. There shall be no latent defects in the facilities or utilities at the inception of the lease, and all of the essential features shall remain in a reasonably fit condition throughout the leasehold. Although the landlord has the duty to repair damage caused by normal wear and tear, the tenant will be liable for any damage caused by malicious, abnormal, or unusual use. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Elements of breach: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The defect shall render the premises unsafe or unsanitary and unfit for living. The materiality of the breach is a question of fact to be decided on a case-by-case basis. Some factors to consider are: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Whether the condition violates a housing law, regulation, or ordinance; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. The nature and seriousness of the defect; <input type="checkbox"/> iii. The effect of the defect on safety and sanitation; <input type="checkbox"/> iv. The length of time for which the condition has persisted; and <input type="checkbox"/> v. The age of the structure. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Notice and opportunity to correct. A tenant shall prove that he/she gave notice to the landlord of the defect or condition, that the landlord had a reasonable opportunity to correct the defect or condition, and that the landlord failed to do so.	Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 903, 905 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 384 A.2d 1234, 1240 (Pa. Super. 1978), aff'd, 405 A.2d 897, 905 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 384 A.2d 1234, 1240 (Pa. Super. 1978), aff'd, 405 A.2d 897, 905 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 905-06 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 384 A.2d 1234, 1240 (Pa. Super. 1978), aff'd, 405 A.2d 897, 905 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 906 (Pa. 1979).

<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Remedies for breach: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Vacating the property; <input type="checkbox"/> b. Remaining in possession and withholding rent; If the landlord totally breached the implied warranty of habitability the tenant would be entitled to total abatement. If the landlord partially breached the warranty, the tenant's obligation to pay rent would be partly abated. It is within the MDJ's discretion whether to order that the unpaid rent be escrowed. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Repair and deduct; Tenant, after first giving landlord notice and opportunity to correct the defect, may have the repair made and deduct the cost from the rent. <input type="checkbox"/> d. Counterclaim for repairs made; This remedy is not available where tenant has not paid his/her rent for the period in which the repairs are made and the cost of the repairs do not exceed the rent owed for that period, because the tenant has already been compensated for the cost of the repairs by not paying rent. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Measure of damages. Damages are calculated under the "percentage reduction of use" method that reduces the amount of rent owed by a percentage equal to the percentage by which the use of the premises has been decreased by the breach.	Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 907 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 907 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. Holmes, 405 A.2d 897, 907-08 (Pa. 1979). Pugh v. 4. Covenant of Quiet Enjoyment

Another implied and non-waivable component of every lease in Pennsylvania is the implied covenant of quiet enjoyment. Kohl v. PNC Bank, N.A., 863 A.2d 23, 27 (Pa. Super. 2004), reversed on other grounds, 912 A.2d 237 (Pa. 2006). Any "wrongful act of the lessor that interferes with the lessee's possession, in whole or in part, is a breach of the covenant of quiet enjoyment." Kohl, at 27 (quoting Branish v. NHP Property Mgmt, Inc., 694 A.2d 1106, 1107 (Pa.Super. 1997)).

Checklist 7-20: Covenant of Quiet Enjoyment	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Standard for breach. To constitute a breach, "[t]he impairment of the lessee's possession need not be total, but the utility of the premises shall be substantially decreased by the landlord's interference with a right or privilege which is necessary to the enjoyment of the premises." <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Specific instances: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Substantial alteration of the premises. The covenant is breached if the landlord "so substantially altered some essential features of the premises so as to render the property unsuitable for the purpose for which it was leased." <input type="checkbox"/> b. Eviction (actual and constructive). Actual eviction of the tenant by the landlord breaches the covenant as does constructive eviction which does not oust the tenant but substantially impairs the tenant's possession. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Litigation affecting tenant's possessory interests. "[A] suit brought by a landlord which substantially impairs a tenant's possessory interest in a leasehold, brought in bad faith, maliciously, or otherwise without probable cause and primarily for a purpose unrelated to seeking legal redress, constitutes a breach of the landlord's covenant of quiet enjoyment."	Kohl v. 5. Security Deposit

The Landlord/Tenant Act (Act) provides procedures by which a residential landlord can keep all or part of the tenant's security deposit upon termination of the lease or surrender and acceptance of the leasehold premises. 68 P.S. § 250.512. Failure of a landlord to comply with the provisions of the Act may give the tenant a claim in assumpsit against the landlord for double the amount by which the escrowed amount exceeds the actual damages to the premises. 68 P.S. § 250.512(c). In addition, improper withholding of a security deposit may make a landlord liable under the Unfair Trade Practices and

Consumer Protection Law (UTCPL), 73 P.S. § 201-1 et seq. Wallace v. Pastore, 742 A.2d 1090 (Pa. Super. 1999), appeal denied, 764 A.2d 1071 (Pa. 2000).

Checklist 7-21: Security Deposit	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Landlord's duties. Within 30 days of termination of a residential lease or surrender and acceptance of residential leasehold premises, a landlord shall provide a written list of damages to the premises for which the landlord holds the tenant liable. Along with the list the landlord shall provide payment of the difference between the security deposit in escrow and the amount of damages caused by the tenant. The landlord is not precluded from refusing to return the escrow fund, including any unpaid interest, for nonpayment of rent or the breach of any other condition of the lease.	68 P.S. § 250.512(a).
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Consequences of landlord's failure to fulfill duties. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Failure to provide list. If a landlord fails to provide the list mentioned in Checklist 7-21(1), the landlord shall forfeit all rights to withhold any portion of the escrowed monies, including any unpaid interest, or to bring a suit against the tenant for damages to the premises. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Failure to pay. If the landlord fails to pay the tenant the difference between the sum deposited (including any unpaid interest) and the actual damages to the premises caused by the tenant within 30 days after termination/surrender and acceptance, the landlord shall be liable to the tenant for double the amount by which the sum deposited exceeds the actual damages to the premises caused by the tenant, as determined by any court having jurisdiction over civil actions at law. The burden of proof as to the actual damages caused by the tenant shall be on the landlord.	68 P.S. § 250.512(b). 68 P.S. § 250.512(c).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. No waiver. Any attempt at waiver of the tenant's rights under the foregoing provisions of the Act shall be void and unenforceable.	68 P.S. § 250.512(d).
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Tenant's failure to provide new address. The failure of the tenant to provide the landlord with his/her new address in writing upon termination of the lease or upon	68 P.S. § 250.512(e).

surrender and acceptance of the leasehold premises shall relieve the landlord from any liability under these provisions of the Act. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law (UTCPL). The UTCPL has been found to be applicable to residential leases and allows a tenant to recover treble damages and attorney's fees for an improperly retained security deposit if the landlord misrepresents the amount of damages, costs of repair, etc. The remedies under the UTCPL may be sought along with other causes of action or remedies the tenant may have.	Wallace v. Pastore, 742 A.2d 1090 (Pa. Super. 1999), appeal denied, 764 A.2d 1071 (Pa. 2000)

6. Plain Language Act

Under the Plain Language Consumer Contract Act (Act), 73 P.S. § 2201 et seq., consumer contracts must be easy to read and understand. Leases for residential property are considered to be consumer contracts for the purposes of the Act, but commercial leases are not. 73 P.S. §§ 2203 & 2204. Violation of the Act may make the landlord liable for damages under the Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law, 73 P.S. § 201-1 et seq. 73 P.S. § 2207.

7. Bankruptcy Stay

The filing of a petition for bankruptcy under the United States Bankruptcy Code will automatically stay the proceedings against the tenant under certain circumstances. 11 U.S.C. § 362. The automatic stay, however, is subject to exceptions that are applicable in the landlord/tenant context. The automatic stay and the relevant exceptions to it are discussed in Checklist 7-23 below.

Checklist 7-23: Bankruptcy Stay	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Automatic stay. Generally, the filing of a bankruptcy petition acts to stay judicial actions, including a landlord/tenant action. Relief. Relief from the automatic stay shall be sought in the bankruptcy court by the landlord or, in rare cases, the tenant. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Exceptions to automatic stay. There are several exceptions to the automatic stay requirement that are pertinent to the landlord/tenant context. A bankruptcy petition does not act as a stay: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Of any act by the landlord to the tenant under a commercial lease that has terminated by the expiration of the term of the lease prior to the commencement of, or during, a bankruptcy case to obtain possession of the leased property; <input type="checkbox"/> b. Of the continuation of any eviction or similar proceeding by a landlord against a debtor/tenant involving a residential property in which the tenant resides under a lease or rental agreement and to which the landlord has obtained a judgment for possession prior to the filing of the bankruptcy petition; and (see c. below).	11 U.S.C. § 362(a). Note: Although the Bankruptcy Code uses the terms "lessor" and "lessee" the terms "landlord" and "tenant" are used herein for the sake of clarity. 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(10). 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(22).

Limitation on exception. Except as otherwise provided, the exception of 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(22) shall apply 30 days after the date the bankruptcy petition is filed if the tenant files a certification with the bankruptcy court (and serves it on the landlord) that the non-bankruptcy law allows him/her to cure the default giving rise to the judgment for possession after said judgment has been entered and the debtor has deposited with the clerk rent that has come due following the filing of the bankruptcy petition.	11 U.S.C. § 362(l)(1).
If, within 30 days after the filing of the bankruptcy petition, a tenant complies with the preceding paragraph and files with the bankruptcy court (and serves on the landlord) an additional certification that the tenant has cured the default giving rise to the judgment under which possession is sought, 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(22) shall not apply, unless the bankruptcy court orders it to apply.	11 U.S.C. § 362(l)(2).
□ c. Of an eviction seeking possession of residential property in which the tenant resides under a lease or rental agreement based on the endangerment of the property or the illegal use of controlled substances on the property, but only if the landlord files with the bankruptcy court (and serves upon the debtor) a certification that such an eviction has been filed or that the tenant during the 30 day period preceding the filing of the certification has endangered the property or illegally used, or allowed to be used, a controlled substance on the property.	11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(23).
Limitation on the exception. The exception of 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(23), except as stated below, shall apply 15 days after the lessor files the aforementioned certification. The tenant may file an objection to the certification.	11 U.S.C. § 362(m)(1)&(2).

<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Duration of the stay. The stay continues until the property at issue is no longer part of the bankruptcy estate (if applicable), or until the bankruptcy case is dismissed or closed, or until the bankruptcy court grants relief from the automatic stay.	11 U.S.C. § 362(c)-(f).

8. Disposition of Abandoned Personal Property

When a lease is terminated or the tenant relinquishes possession of the real property, he/she is required to remove all personal property from the premises. 68 P.S. § 250.505a(a). Any abandoned personal property remaining on the premises may be disposed of at the landlord’s discretion subject to the provisions discussed in Checklist 7-24 below. Id.

Checklist 7-24: Disposition of Abandoned Personal Property	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Abandonment. Personal property left on the premises will be deemed abandoned if any of the following apply: (1) tenant has vacated following termination of a written lease; (2) an eviction order or order for possession for the landlord has been entered and tenant has vacated and removed substantially all personal property; (3) an eviction order or order for possession for the landlord has been executed; (4) tenant has provided landlord with written notice of a forwarding address and vacated and removed substantially all personal property; or (5) tenant has vacated without communicating an intent to return, the rent is more than 15 days past due and, subsequent to these events, landlord has posted notice of tenant’s rights regarding the personal property.	68 P.S. § 250.505a(b)
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Deceased tenants. Where a tenant is deceased and leaves personal property, the provisions of 68 P.S. § 250.505a shall not apply. The disposition shall be governed by 20 Pa.C.S. §§ 711(1) and 3392.	68 P.S. § 250.505a(c).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Notice; storage. Prior to removing/disposing of the personal property, landlord must give written notice of tenant’s rights. Tenant shall have 10 days from the postmark date to retrieve the property or request that it be stored for an additional 30-day period from the date of the notice. Storage will be at a place of landlord’s choosing and tenant is responsible for costs. The landlord shall exercise ordinary care in handling and	68 P.S. § 250.505a(d).

securing tenant’s property and make it reasonable available for retrieval. Notice shall be sent by first class mail to the tenant at the address of the leased premises and to any forwarding address provided, including any address provided for emergency purposes. The notice shall be in substantially the following form: “Personal property remaining at (address) is now considered to have been abandoned. Within ten days of the postmark date of this notice, you must retrieve any items you wish to keep or contact your landlord at (telephone number and address) to request that the property be retained or stored. If requested, storage will be provided for up to thirty days from the postmark date of this notice at a place of your landlord’s choosing, and you will be responsible for costs of storage.” <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Inhabited premises. A landlord is not permitted to dispose of or otherwise exercise control over personal property remaining upon inhabited premises without the express permission of tenant. If the conditions under which the personal property is deemed abandoned no longer exist, landlord has not right to dispose of or otherwise exercise control over it. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Tenant with a Protection from Abuse (PFA) order. If a landlord proceeding under the provisions of 68 P.S. 250.505a(b)(3) (an eviction order or order for possession in favor of the landlord has been executed) has actual knowledge or has been notified of a PFA order entered for the protection of tenant or a member of his/her immediate family, landlord shall refrain from disposing of or otherwise exercising control over tenant’s personal property for 30 days from the date of notice. If requested, storage shall be provided for up to 30 days from the request. <input type="checkbox"/> 6. Conflict between lease and 68 P.S. § 250.505a. Except as regards 68 P.S. § 250.505a(h) (see 5. above), if there is a conflict between the statute and the terms of the written lease, the terms of the lease shall control.	68 P.S. § 250.505a(e). 68 P.S. § 250.505a(f). 68 P.S. § 250.505a(h). 68 P.S. § 250.505a(g).

<input type="checkbox"/> 7. Damages for violation. A landlord who violated the provisions of 68 P.S. § 250.505a shall be subject to treble damages, reasonable attorney fees and court costs.	68 P.S. § 250.505a.

VIII. PROTECTION FROM ABUSE ORDERS

A. INTRODUCTION

This section discusses four types of emergency protection orders that an MDJ may issue: emergency orders under the Protection From Abuse (PFA) Act; emergency protection orders under the Older Adults Protective Services Act (OAPSA); emergency protection orders under the Adult Protective Services Act (APSA), and emergency relief under the Protection of Victims of Sexual Violence or Intimidation Act (PVSVI). The PFA Act, 23 Pa.C.S. § 6101 et seq., is designed to protect the victim of domestic abuse and prevent further domestic abuse by removing the alleged perpetrator of the abuse from the household and/or the presence of the victim for some time. McCance v. McCance, 908 A.2d 905, 908 (Pa. Super. 2006). Although most proceedings under the PFA Act will be within the jurisdiction of the court of common pleas, the PFA Act provides that a MDJ may grant emergency relief under certain circumstances. 23 Pa.C.S. § 6110. Subsections B through E outline the procedure by which the MDJ may grant such relief.

The OAPSA, 35 P.S. § 10225.101 et seq., provides a mechanism by which an MDJ may issue a protective order in the case of imminent risk of death or serious physical harm to an older adult. 35 P.S. § 10225.307. Subsection F outlines the procedure by which the MDJ may grant such relief.

The APSA, 35 P.S. § 10210.101 et seq., is similar to OAPSA except it is designed to protect adults between the ages of 18 and 59 who have physical or mental impairments that substantially limit one or more major life activities. Subsection G outlines the procedures by which the MDJ may grant emergency relief under the APSA.

The PVSVI Act, 42 Pa.C.S. § 62A01 et seq., is designed to provide victims of sexual violence and intimidation a civil remedy requiring an offender to stay away from the victim and other appropriate relief. 42 Pa.C.S. § 62A02. Subsection H outlines the procedures by which an MDJ may grant emergency relief under the PVSVI Act.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law, and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that also affect these procedures. In addition, OAPSA and APSA actions and requirements are governed by statute and local procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. PFA EMERGENCY ORDERS: JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND STANDING TO SEEK RELIEF

F. EMERGENCY PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE OLDER ADULTS PROTECTIVE SERVICES ACT (OAPSA)

The OAPSA, 35 P.S. § 10225.101 et seq., is designed to protect adults 60 years of age or older from abuse and neglect. Among other protections, the OAPSA provides for involuntary emergency intervention by court order and requires that the courts of common pleas of each judicial district make available a judge or an MDJ to decide petitions for emergency orders. 35 P.S. § 10225.307(a). As a result, an MDJ so designated by the court of common pleas may be faced with such a petition. Actions under the OAPSA are governed by statute and local procedures and not the Rules of Civil Procedure for MDJs. Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1201. The following checklist outlines the procedure for petitions for emergency orders set forth in the statute.

In addition, in matters involving older adults, MDJs are encouraged to consult the Pennsylvania Elder Abuse and Neglect Bench Card which has been distributed to all MDJs. If you require a copy of the bench card contact the Office of Elder Justice in the Courts at <http://www.pacourts.us/judicial-administration/court-programs/office-of-elder-justice-in-the-courts>.

G. EMERGENCY PROCEEDINGS UNDER THE ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES ACT (APSA)

The APSA, 35 P.S. § 10210.101 et seq., is designed to protect adults between 18 and 59 years of age from abuse and neglect. Among other protections, the APSA provides for involuntary emergency intervention by court order and requires that the courts of common pleas of each judicial district make available a judge or an MDJ to decide petitions for emergency orders. 35 P.S. § 10210.307(a)(2). As a result, an MDJ so designated by the court of common pleas may be faced with such a petition. Actions under the APSA are governed by statute and local procedures and not the Rules of Civil Procedure for MDJs. Note to Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1201. H. EMERGENCY RELIEF UNDER THE PROTECTION OF VICTIMS OF SEXUAL VIOLENCE OR INTIMIDATION ACT (PVSVI)

The PVSVI Act is designed to protect victims of sexual violence and intimidation. One form of relief offered under the Act is an emergency protective order. 42 Pa.C.S. § 62A09. The following checklist outlines the procedure for petitions for emergency orders set forth in the statute. In addition, the same rules that apply to emergency relief under the PFA discussed above also apply to emergency relief under the PVSVI Act. Pa.R.Civ.P.M.D.J. 1201.

IX. CONTEMPT POWERS OF MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT JUDGES

A. INTRODUCTION

This section discusses the power of an MDJ to punish for contempt that occurs both in and outside the presence of the MDJ as provided in the Judicial Code. An MDJ's contempt powers are more limited than those of a common pleas court judge.

Subsection B outlines the scope of the MDJ's contempt power and the punishments that can be imposed. Subsection C outlines the procedure for a contempt finding. Finally, subsection D outlines the procedure for handling defaults in payments of fines imposed as punishment for contempt.

CAVEAT: The following section is based primarily upon the general rules of court, case law, and statutes. There may, however, be local rules and/or directives from the president judge of your judicial district that also affect these procedures. The MDJ should familiarize him/herself with any such rules or directives. It is important to note that any local rule or directive must be consistent with statutes and statewide rules of procedure. Pa.R.J.A. 103.

B. SCOPE OF CONTEMPT POWERS AND PUNISHMENT

Checklist 9-1: Scope of Contempt Powers and Punishment	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Scope. MDJs have a limited power "to issue attachments and impose summary punishments for criminal contempts" of court in the following situations. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Misbehavior of any person in the presence of the court, thereby obstructing the administration of justice.	42 Pa.C.S. § 4137(a). Note: Criminal contempt is a term which describes acts done in disrespect of a court or its process or which obstruct the administration of justice or bring the court into disrepute. Black's Law Dictionary (10th ed. 2014). In contrast, civil contempt consists of failing to do something the court has ordered to be done for the benefit or advantage of another party. 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137(a)(1). Note: Misbehavior in the presence of the MDJ is also referred as summary contempt. C. PROCEDURE FOR A FINDING OF CONTEMPT

An MDJ has the power to issue an attachment by means of a warrant and to conduct a hearing prior to imposing punishment for contempt. 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137(d). All contempt proceedings are to be entered on the court's miscellaneous docket, and a separate docket transcript is to be prepared. Comment to Pa.R.Crim.P. 140. The procedure for conducting contempt proceedings is determined by whether the contempt occurred in or outside the presence of the court. Checklist 9-2 below sets forth the appropriate procedure for each type of contempt.

Checklist 9-2: Procedure for Contempt Finding	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Contempt in the presence of the court (summary or direct contempt). <input type="checkbox"/> a. Basis of summary or direct contempt finding. An MDJ may summarily hold an individual in contempt for misbehavior in the court's presence that "obstructs the administration of justice" after affording him/her an opportunity to be heard and impose punishment of a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than 30 days or both. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Stay pending appeal/counsel/ de novo trial. In addition, the MDJ must advise that: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Any punishment will be automatically stayed for 30 days from the date of imposition; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. If the contemnor files a timely appeal, the stay will remain in effect until disposition of the appeal; <input type="checkbox"/> iii. If imprisonment is imposed, the contemnor has the right to assistance of counsel for the trial de novo and that if the individual cannot afford counsel one will be assigned as provided in Pa.R.Crim.P. 122; <input type="checkbox"/> iv. The contemnor must appear for the trial de novo or the appeal may be dismissed; and <input type="checkbox"/> v. Set forth the punishment imposed and the date on which the contemnor is to pay any fine or appear for the execution of any punishment of imprisonment; <input type="checkbox"/> iv. Set forth the information specified in Pa.R.Crim.P. 140(A)(2) (relating to contemnor's appeal rights); and <input type="checkbox"/> v. The contempt order must also be signed by the MDJ and a copy given to the contemnor. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Contempt outside the presence of the court (indirect criminal contempt). <input type="checkbox"/> a. Institution of proceedings. If an individual is alleged to have violated any of the provisions of 42 Pa.C.S. § 4137(a)(2),(3), or (4), or failed to comply with the MDJ in any situation where the MDJ is empowered by statute to find the individual in contempt, contempt proceedings can be instituted in one of two ways: <input type="checkbox"/> i. First, the MDJ may give written notice to the alleged contemnor specifying the time, date, and place of the contempt hearing. The notice must also: <input type="checkbox"/> A. The second way a MDJ can institute proceedings for contempts that occur outside of the presence of the court is to issue an attachment by means of a warrant, if appropriate. <input type="checkbox"/> b. X. EVIDENCE

A. INTRODUCTION

The law of evidence is governed by the United States and Pennsylvania constitutions as well as the Pennsylvania Rules of Evidence, procedural rules, and statutes. Comment to Pa.R.E. 101. The Rules of Evidence determine what information a court may or may not consider when rendering its decision, and they "govern proceedings in all courts in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's unified judicial system, except as otherwise provided by law." Pa.R.E. 101(a). The Rules of Evidence are to be interpreted in such a way as to secure fairness in administration, eliminate unjustifiable expense and delay, and promote the development of the law of evidence to the end of ascertaining the truth and securing a just determination. Pa.R.E. 102.

The law of evidence is somewhat relaxed with regard to proceedings like preliminary hearings, bail hearings, extradition hearings, etc. Comment to Pa.R.E. 101. As a consequence, some evidentiary rules may not apply, or may not apply with equal force, in proceedings before MDJs as they would in jury trials in the court of common pleas. For the sake of completeness, this section contains provisions that may have little or no application to MDJ proceedings. These provisions are noted for the reader when they are discussed.

B. GENERAL EVIDENTIARY PRINCIPLES

The basic means by which one party seeks to prevent another party from putting evidence before the court is by making an objection. When an objection is made, the court must make a ruling on the evidence's admissibility. Checklist 10-1 discusses the general evidentiary principles surrounding the procedure for determining the admissibility of evidence.

If the ruling is one admitting evidence, a timely objection is made on the record, stating the specific grounds of the objection, if the specific ground was not apparent from the context of the objection; or <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Offer of proof. If a ruling excludes evidence, the substance of the evidence excluded is made known to the court by offer or was apparent from the context of the objection. <input type="checkbox"/> iii. Renewal not required. Once the court rules on objection or offer on the record, the party need not renew it to preserve the claim. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Record of the offer and ruling. The MDJ may add any other or additional statement showing the character of the evidence, the form in which it was offered, the objection made and the ruling. The MDJ can also direct that the offer of proof be made in question-and-answer format. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Decision. If the MDJ agrees with the objection it is sustained. If the MDJ disagrees with the objection it is said to be overruled. See the Table of Objections (at the end of this section) for a representative list of objections. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Preliminary questions. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Admissibility questions in general. Preliminary questions as to the qualifications of a potential witness, the existence of a privilege, or the admissibility of evidence shall be determined by the court. In making this determination, the court is not bound by the rules of evidence (except those with respect to privileges), but may consider any relevant evidence, including the allegedly inadmissible evidence itself.	Pa.R.E. 103(a)(1). Note: Rule 103 pertains to what a party must do to preserve an evidentiary issue for appeal. For a discussion of what constitutes the "record" in an MDJ court see Checklist 6-1 (Civil) or Checklist 3-1(7) (Criminal). Pa.R.E. 103(a)(2). Pa.R.E. 103(b). Pa.R.E. 103(c). Note: For a discussion of what constitutes the "record" see Checklist 6-1 (Civil) or Checklist 3-1(7) (Criminal). Pa.R.E. 104. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Relevancy of evidence conditioned on fact. When the relevancy of evidence (see Checklist 10-2(1)) depends upon the fulfillment of a condition of fact, the court shall admit it upon, or subject to, the introduction of sufficient evidence to support a finding that the condition has been fulfilled.	Pa.R.E. 104(b).
<input type="checkbox"/> c. Testimony of the defendant on a preliminary question. The mere fact that the defendant testifies on a preliminary evidentiary question does not make him/her subject to cross-examination as to other issues in the case.	Pa.R.E. 104(d).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Weight and credibility. Although the court has ruled evidence admissible, a party may still offer evidence relevant to its weight or credibility.	Pa.R.E. 104(e). Note: The credibility of witnesses, however, is not at issue in a preliminary hearing. Liciaga v. CCP of Lehigh County, 566 A.2d 246, 248 (Pa. 1989) (MDJ precluded from considering credibility of a witness at a preliminary hearing); Commonwealth v. Fox, 619 A.2d 327, 332 (Pa. Super. 1993) (MDJ may limit cross-examination at preliminary hearing regarding credibility).
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Limited admissibility. When evidence is admitted against one party or for one purpose but is not admissible as to another party or for another purpose, the court, upon motion or on its own, may restrict the evidence to its proper scope.	Pa.R.E. 105. Note: This rule would likely be inapplicable in the MDJ context; it appears geared toward the jury trial context.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Remainder of related writings or recorded statements. When a writing or a recorded statement, or a part thereof, is introduced by one party, an adverse party may require the introduction at that time of any other part or any other writing which should, in fairness, be considered along with it.	Pa.R.E. 106.
<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Judicial notice. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Definition. "A court may take judicial notice of an indisputable adjudicative fact. C. RELEVANCY

The first test of whether evidence is admissible is whether it is relevant. Evidence that is not relevant is not admissible. Evidence that is relevant may be admissible if not objectionable on other grounds. Checklist 10-2 below discusses relevance as a basis for admission or exclusion of evidence.

Checklist 10-2: Relevancy and its Limits	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Relevant evidence defined. Relevant evidence is evidence with any tendency to make the existence of any fact of consequence to the determination of the action more or less probable than it would be without the evidence. Whether evidence has a tendency to make a fact more or less probable is to be determined by the MDJ in light of reason, experience, scientific principles, and other testimony offered in the matter. Conditional relevance. As discussed in Checklist 10-1(2)(b), the relevance of evidence may be conditional or dependent upon facts not yet of record and may be admitted subject to the introduction of additional evidence demonstrating that all conditions necessary to a finding of relevance have been met.	Pa.R.E. 401. Comment to Pa.R.E. 401. Pa.R.E. 104(b); Comment to Pa.R.E. 401.

<input type="checkbox"/> 2. Admissibility: generally. All relevant evidence is admissible (except as otherwise provided by law) and evidence that is not relevant is not admissible. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Prejudice, confusion, or waste of time. Relevant evidence may nonetheless be excluded if its probative value is outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, misleading the jury or if admitting it would create undue delay, waste time or result in unnecessary repetition of cumulative evidence. "Probative value" refers to evidence's tendency to prove an issue. Concerns about unfairly prejudicial evidence are greater in jury trials than non-jury trials as it is presumed that a judge can disregard improper evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Character evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Generally. Evidence of a person's character or a character trait is not admissible for the purpose of proving the person acted in conformity with that character or character trait on a specific occasion, except: <input type="checkbox"/> i. Defendant's character. In criminal cases, a defendant can offer evidence of a pertinent character trait and if admitted the prosecution may offer evidence to rebut it. <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Alleged victim's character. <input type="checkbox"/> A. Criminal cases. <input type="checkbox"/> C. Civil action for assault and battery. Evidence of a plaintiff's character for violence is admissible when offered by the defendant to rebut evidence that the defendant was the first aggressor.	Pa.R.E. 404(a)(4).

<input type="checkbox"/> b. Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts.
<input type="checkbox"/> i. Not admissible to show conformity to character. Evidence of crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove the character of the person in order to show that he/she acted in conformity with that character.	Pa.R.E. 404(b)(1).
<input type="checkbox"/> ii. Admissible for other purposes. In criminal cases, the prosecution shall provide reasonable notice prior to trial (or during trial if the court excuses pretrial notice based on good cause shown) of the general nature of any such evidence it intends to introduce at trial. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Methods of proving character. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Reputation. Where evidence of character or a character trait is admissible, proof may be made by testimony as to reputation. On cross-examination of the reputation witness, inquiry may be made into specific instances of conduct that are probative of the character trait in question. In a criminal case, however, no inquiry may be made into allegations of other criminal misconduct by the defendant that did not result in a conviction. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Specific instances of conduct. Specific instances of conduct are not admissible to prove character or a character trait, except: <input type="checkbox"/> i. In civil cases, where character or a character trait is admissible as an element of a claim or defense, character may be proved by specific instances of conduct; or <input type="checkbox"/> ii. In criminal cases, where character or a character trait is admissible under Pa.R.E. 404(a)(2)(B) (see Checklist 10-2(4)(a)(ii)), the defendant may prove the complainant's character or a character trait by specific instances of conduct. <input type="checkbox"/> 6. <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Subsequent remedial measures. If, following an injury/harm, measures are taken which, if taken previously would have made the injury/harm less likely to occur, evidence of such subsequent remedial measures is not admissible to prove: negligence; culpable conduct; a defect in the product or its design. Or a need for a warning or instruction. Subsequent remedial measures may be inquired into for impeachment purposes or to prove other disputed matters, such as ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures.	Pa.R.E. 407.
<input type="checkbox"/> 8. Compromise and offers to compromise. Evidence of furnishing, promising, or offering (or accepting, promising to accept, or offering to accept) valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise the claim as well as evidence of conduct or statements made during the course of compromise negotiations is not admissible.	Pa.R.E. 408(a). Note: The term compromise in this context refers to a settlement of a claim by mutual agreement of the parties.

D. PRIVILEGES

Privileged communications are statements made by persons within a relationship (i.e., spousal, attorney-client, etc.) which the law protects from forced disclosure at the option of the witness, spouse, etc. BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY (10th ed. 1990). Evidentiary privileges are generally disfavored and "[t]hus, courts should accept testimonial privileges 'only to the very limited extent that permitting a refusal to testify or excluding relevant evidence has a public good transcending the normally predominant principle of utilizing all rational means for ascertaining the truth.'" Commonwealth v. Stewart, 690 A.2d 195, 197 (Pa. 1997) (quoting Trammel v. United States, 445 U.S. 40, 46 (1980)).

Once the party asserting a privilege demonstrates that it applies, the burden shifts to the party seeking disclosure to show either that privilege has been waived or that the information sought will not violate the privilege. 1 West's Pennsylvania Practice, Evidence (Packel & Poulin) (4th ed.), § 501-1. Privileges are created by statute or case law, not by the Rules of Evidence. Pa.R.E. 501. Checklist 10-3 below contains a list of common privileges. This list, however, is not exhaustive.

□ a. Generally. No person engaged by, connected with, or employed by any newspaper of general circulation or any press association or any radio or television station, or any magazine of general circulation, for the purpose of gathering, procuring, compiling, editing, or publishing news, shall be required to disclose the source of any information procured or obtained by them in any legal proceeding, trial, or investigation before any government unit.	42 Pa.C.S. § 5942(a).
□ b. Exception. The general rule set forth above as it relates to radio or television stations shall not apply unless the radio or television station maintains and keeps open for inspection, for a period of at least one year from the date of the actual broadcast or telecast, an exact recording, transcription, film, or certified written transcript of the actual broadcast or telecast.	42 Pa.C.S. § 5942(b).
□ 9. Domestic violence counselor/advocate confidentiality. Unless a victim waives the privilege in a signed writing prior to testimony/disclosure, a domestic violence counselor/advocate or a co-participant who is present during domestic violence counseling/advocacy shall not be competent nor permitted to testify or to otherwise disclose confidential communications made to or by the counselor/advocate by or to a victim. The privilege terminates upon the victim's death. The domestic violence counselor/advocate for the victim does not waive the privilege by reporting facts of physical or sexual assault under Chapter 63 (relating to the Child Protective Services law), a federal or state mandatory reporting statute or a local mandatory reporting ordinance.	23 Pa.C.S. § 6116. Note: "Co-participant" is defined as "a victim participating in group counseling." 42 Pa.C.S. §5945.1(a); 23 Pa.C.S. § 102(b). 23 Pa.C.S. § 6116.

E. WITNESSES

Witnesses are an important means by which evidence is brought into a trial or hearing. A preliminary concern regarding witnesses is whether they are competent--that is, legally fit and qualified--to testify. In addition, there are proper and improper means by which a witness's credibility may be attacked or supported. Finally, the Rules prescribe a proper procedure for handling of witnesses during court proceedings. This section examines each of these subject areas.

1. Competency of Witnesses

Before a witness is permitted to testify, the MDJ should determine whether he/she is competent to testify. Generally, every person is competent to be a witness unless prevented by statute or the Rules of Evidence. Pa.R.E. 601(a). Checklist 10-4 examines the statutory and rule-based provisions that would bar a person from testifying.

Checklist 10-4: Competency	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Disqualification by specific defects. A person is incompetent to testify if the court finds that because of a mental condition or immaturity the person: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Is, or was at any relevant time, incapable of perceiving accurately; <input type="checkbox"/> b. Is unable to express him/herself so as to be understood either directly or through an interpreter; <input type="checkbox"/> c. Has an impaired memory; or <input type="checkbox"/> d. Does not sufficiently understand the duty to tell the truth. Standard and burden of proof. Application of the standards of Pa.R.E. 601(b) is a preliminary factual question to be determined by the court pursuant to Pa.R.E. 104 (see Checklist 10-1(2) above). The party challenging competency has the burden of proving incompetency by clear and convincing evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Disqualification due to privilege. The existence of a statutory privilege may also render a person incompetent to testify. Privileges are discussed in Checklist 10-3 above. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Lack of personal knowledge. A witness cannot testify about a matter unless sufficient evidence is introduced to support a finding that he/she has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence of personal knowledge may, but does not have to, consist of the witness's own testimony. Expert witnesses are subject to additional requirements set forth in Pa.R.E. 703 (see Checklist 10-7(3) below). Burden of proof. The party calling the witness has the burden of proving that the witness has personal knowledge. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Competency of a judge as a witness. The MDJ presiding at a trial or other proceeding may not testify as a witness at that same trial or proceeding.	Pa.R.E. 601(b). Pa.R.E. 601(b)(1). Pa.R.E. 601(b)(2). Pa.R.E. 601(b)(3). Pa.R.E. 601(b)(4). Comment to Pa.R.E. 601. Comment to Pa.R.E. 601 (citing Commonwealth v. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Qualification of a child witness. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Competency inquiry. A child's competency to testify is a threshold question. Competency is presumed where a child is 14 years or older; for younger children, the MDJ must conduct an inquiry-also known as a voir dire- to determine whether the child possesses: <input type="checkbox"/> i. The capacity to communicate, including the ability to understand questions and frame and express intelligent answers; <input type="checkbox"/> ii. The mental capacity to observe the occurrence and the capacity to remember what it is the witness is being called to testify about; and <input type="checkbox"/> iii. A consciousness of the duty to speak the truth. Thoroughness of the inquiry. The inquiry into the child's mental capacity should be more searching in proportion to the child's chronological immaturity. Other criteria. The MDJ may consider criteria in addition to the answers to the voir dire questions such as the child's demeanor, alertness, thoughtfulness, sincerity, and general responses and testimony.	Commonwealth v. Dowling, 883 A.2d 570, 576 (Pa. 2005). Rosche v. McCoy, 156 A.2d 307, 310 (Pa. 1959). Note: The inquiry itself may be handled by counsel; however, the MDJ should ensure that sufficient questions are asked to allow him/her to make an informed competency determination. Rosche v. McCoy, 156 A.2d 307, 310 (Pa. 1959). Rosche v. McCoy, 156 A.2d 307, 310 (Pa. 1959). Rosche v. McCoy, 156 A.2d 307, 310 (Pa. 1959). Rosche v. 2. Procedure for Witness Interrogation and Evidence Presentation

Checklist 10-5: Procedure for Witness Interrogation and Evidence Presentation	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Oath or affirmation. Before any witness may testify, he/she shall declare that he/she will testify truthfully, by oath or affirmation administered in a form "designed to	Pa.R.E. 603. Note: Even attorneys are required to take an oath/affirmation before testifying. Rule 604 requires that an interpreter be qualified and make an oath or affirmation to make a true translation. Therefore, prior to allowing an interpreter to begin his/her duties in a proceeding, the MDJ shall conduct an inquiry into the interpreter's qualifications and shall administer the oath for interpreters. For matters relating to interpreters, see Checklist 11-4. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Mode and order of witness interrogation and presentation. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Court's role. The MDJ shall exercise reasonable control over the mode and order of interrogation of witnesses and presentation of evidence with the goals of: making the interrogation and presentation effective for ascertaining the truth, avoiding unnecessary use of time, and protecting witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment. <input type="checkbox"/> i. Form of question objections. In exercising this role, the MDJ may have to decide objections made to the form of questions. Some form objections and suggested actions if the objections are sustained are: <input type="checkbox"/> A. Ambiguous. The question is confusing and capable of more than one meaning. If sustained, direct counsel to rephrase the question. <input type="checkbox"/> B. Argumentative. 3. Impeachment or Support of Witness Credibility

There are certain ways a witness's credibility may be impeached or supported under the rules. Checklist 10-6 below sets forth these means in detail. It should be noted that the credibility of witnesses is not at issue at a preliminary hearing. Liciaga v. CCP of Lehigh County, 566 A.2d 246, 248 (Pa. 1989) (MDJ precluded from considering credibility of a witness at a preliminary hearing); Commonwealth v. Fox, 619 A.2d 327, 332 (Pa. Super. 1993) (MDJ may limit cross-examination at preliminary hearing regarding credibility). Therefore, this section is not applicable to preliminary hearings.

Checklist 10-6: Impeachment/Support of Witness	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Generally. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Who may impeach. Any party may attack the credibility of any witness, including the party that called the witness. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Evidence used to impeach. A witness's credibility may be attacked by any evidence relevant to that issue, except as may be otherwise provided by statute or the Rules of Evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Character and conduct of witness. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Reputation evidence of character. A witness's credibility may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of his/her reputation as to character of truthfulness, but limited in the following manner:	Pa.R.E. 607(a). Pa.R.E. 607(b). Pa.R.E. 608(a).

<input type="checkbox"/> i. Evidence of a truthful character is only admissible after the witness's character for truthfulness has been attacked either by reputation evidence or otherwise; and <input type="checkbox"/> ii. Opinion testimony about the witness's character for truthfulness/untruthfulness is not admissible. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Specific instances of conduct. Except as provided in Pa.R.E. 609 (evidence of criminal conviction, Checklist 10-6(3) below), a witness's character for truthfulness may not be attacked or supported by cross-examination or extrinsic evidence of specific instances of the witness's conduct. The MDJ, however, may at his/her discretion, allow the credibility of a witness testifying as to another witness's reputation to be attacked by cross-examination concerning specific instances of conduct (but not arrests) of the other witness, if they are probative of truthfulness/untruthfulness. Extrinsic evidence of these specific instances, however, is not admissible. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Impeachment by criminal conviction. <input type="checkbox"/> a. General rule. Evidence that a witness has been convicted of a crime (by either verdict, guilty plea, or plea of nolo contendere) shall be admitted to attack the witness's credibility, but only if the crime involved dishonesty or false statements. Crimes involving dishonesty of false statements are also referred to as crimen falsi. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Time limit. Evidence of a criminal conviction is not admissible if more than 10 years have elapsed since the date of conviction or the date the witness was released from confinement (whichever is later), unless: <input type="checkbox"/> i. the court determines that the conviction's probative value substantially outweighs its prejudicial effect; and	Pa.R.E. 608(a). Pa.R.E. 608(a). Pa.R.E. 608(b)(1). Pa.R.E. 608(b)(2). Note: In determining whether to allow such cross-examination, the MDJ should conduct a balancing test pursuant to Pa.R.E. 403 (see Checklist 10-2(3) above) to determine whether to allow it. Effect of pardon or equivalent procedure or successful completion of a rehabilitation procedure. Evidence of a criminal conviction is not admissible if it has been the subject of: a pardon or other equivalent procedure based on a specific finding of innocence, or a pardon or other equivalent procedure based on a specific finding of rehabilitation of the convicted person, and that person has not been convicted of a similar crime. <li style="margin-bottom: 1em;"> <input type="checkbox"/> d. Juvenile adjudications. In criminal cases only, evidence of a juvenile delinquency adjudication may be used to impeach the credibility of a witness if conviction of the offense would be admissible to attack the credibility of an adult. <li style="margin-bottom: 1em;"> <input type="checkbox"/> e. Appeal pending. The fact that an appeal of the conviction is still pending does not render evidence of the conviction inadmissible. 4. Opinions and Expert Testimony

Witnesses, whether experts or laypersons, may give opinion testimony under certain circumstances.

Checklist 10-7 below discusses opinion and expert testimony.

Checklist 10-7: Opinion and Expert Testimony	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Opinion testimony by a lay (non-expert) witness. If the witness is not testifying as an expert, any testimony in the form of an opinion is limited to opinions rationally based on the witness's perception that are helpful to a clear understanding of the witness's testimony, or a clear understanding of the fact at issue, and that is not based on scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge within the scope of Pa.R.E. 702 (expert testimony, see Checklist 10-7(2) below). <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Expert witness testimony. A witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education may testify as an expert in the form of opinion or otherwise if: his/her scientific, technical or other specialized knowledge is beyond that possessed by an average layperson; the expert's knowledge will assist the MDJ court to understand the evidence or determine a fact at issue; and his/her methodology is generally accepted in the relevant field. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Test for qualifying an expert. In deciding whether to qualify a witness as an expert, the court shall determine if the witness has "any reasonable pretension to specialized knowledge on the subject under investigation." If so, the witness may testify and the weight to be given the testimony is for the trier of fact (the MDJ) to determine. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Duration of expert qualification. The qualification lasts for the duration of the proceeding for which the witness was qualified as an expert. The fact that a witness may have been qualified as an expert on the same subject by a different judge/MDJ or in a different proceeding does not bar the MDJ from making his/her own determination as to whether to qualify that witness as an expert. The MDJ may consider any prior occasions when the witness gave expert testimony and give that fact whatever weight he/she deems proper. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Sample qualification questions. There is no required set of questions for qualifying an expert. In fact, no single set of questions would be sufficient as experts testify on a variety of topics and the questions must be tailored	Pa.R.E. 701. Pa.R.E. 702. Miller v. The expert may base his/her opinion on facts or data that the expert has been made aware of or personally observed. If the facts/data are of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the particular field for forming opinions or inferences, then the facts/data do not have to be themselves admissible in evidence. <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Opinion on the ultimate issue. Opinion testimony is not objectionable because it encompasses an ultimate issue to be addressed by the trier of fact. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. F. HEARSAY

1. Hearsay Generally Not Admissible

Hearsay is defined as "a statement that (1) the declarant does not make while testifying at the current trial or hearing; and (2) a party offers in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted in the statement." Pa.R.E. 801(c). A statement is either an oral/written assertion or a person's nonverbal conduct that is intended by the person to be an assertion. Pa.R.E. 801(a). The statement at issue must have been made out of court in order to be considered hearsay. Comment to Pa.R.E. 801. Hearsay is generally not admissible except in the circumstances discussed below. Pa.R.E. 802.

2. Exceptions to the Inadmissibility of Hearsay

Although hearsay is generally not admissible, there are exceptions created by rules and statutes. These exceptions are discussed in Checklist 10-8 below. Perhaps the most relevant of these to the MDJ is that under Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(E) (see Checklist 10-8(7) below) which allows the use of hearsay at a preliminary hearing.

Checklist 10-8: Hearsay Exceptions	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Hearsay exceptions where the declarant's availability is immaterial. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Present sense impression. A statement that describes or explains an event/condition made while the declarant was perceiving the event/condition, or immediately afterwards, is admissible hearsay. If the declarant is unidentified, the proponent must show by independent corroborating evidence that the declarant actually perceived the event/condition. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Excited utterance. A statement relating to a startling event/condition made while the declarant was under the stress of excitement caused by the event/condition is admissible hearsay. If the declarant is unidentified, the proponent must show by independent corroborating evidence that the declarant actually perceived the startling event/condition.	Pa.R.E. 803. Pa.R.E. 803(1). Pa.R.E. 803(2).

<input type="checkbox"/> c. Existing mental, emotional, or physical condition. A statement of the declarant's then existing state of mind, emotion, sensation, or physical condition such as intent, plan, motive, design, mental feeling, pain, and bodily health is admissible hearsay. A statement of memory or belief offered to prove a fact remembered or believed is not admissible under this exception except insofar as it relates to the execution, revocation, identification, or terms of the declarant's will.	Pa.R.E. 803(3).
<input type="checkbox"/> d. Statements for medical diagnosis or treatment. A statement that is: made for, and reasonably pertinent to, medical treatment or diagnosis; and that describes medical history, past or present symptoms, pain, sensations, or inception or general character of the cause or external source of same, to the extent reasonably pertinent to treatment or diagnosis.	Pa.R.E. 803(4).
<input type="checkbox"/> e. Records of regularly conducted activity. A memorandum, report, record, or data compilation of acts/events/conditions is admissible if:	Pa.R.E. 803(6).
<input type="checkbox"/> i. it was made at or near the time by, or from information transmitted by, someone with knowledge;	Pa.R.E. 803(6)(A).
<input type="checkbox"/> ii. it was kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of a “business” is admissible unless the source of the information or other circumstances indicate lack of trustworthiness.	Pa.R.E. 803(6)(B). Note: For purposes of this rule, the term "business" includes businesses, institutions, associations, professions, occupations, and callings of every kind regardless of whether they are conducted for profit or not. Pa.R.E. 803(6).
<input type="checkbox"/> iii. the making of it was a regular practice of that activity;	Pa.R.E. 803(6)(C).
<input type="checkbox"/> iv. the conditions of Pa.R.E. 803(6)(A)-(C) (i. – iii. immediately above) are shown by testimony of a records custodian or other qualified witness, or a certification that complies with Pa.R.E. 902(11),	Pa.R.E. 803(6)(D). Pa.R.E. 803(6). Note: Checklists 10-9(2)(k) & (l) discuss such certifications.

However, forensic laboratory reports may be admissible in lieu of testimony pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. 574. Exception for civil or landlord-tenant cases. In civil or landlord-tenant matters before an MDJ, a bill, estimate, receipt, or statement of account which appears to have been made in the regular course of business may be introduced into evidence by any party without affidavit or other evidence of its truth, accuracy, or authenticity. <input type="checkbox"/> f. Public records. A record of a public office is admissible if: it describes the facts and actions taken or the matter observed; the recording of the action or matter was an official public duty; and the opponent does not show that the source of the information, or other circumstances, indicate a lack of trustworthiness. <input type="checkbox"/> g. Non-existence of a public record. Testimony or a certification that a diligent search failed to disclose a public record is admissible if: the testimony/certification is admitted to prove that either the record does not exist or a matter did not occur or exist, if a public office regularly kept a record for a matter of that kind. In criminal cases a Commonwealth intending to offer such evidence must give 20 days' written notice. The defendant has 10 days to serve a written demand for testimony in lieu of certification. <input type="checkbox"/> h. Records of religious organizations. A statement made by a co-conspirator of a party during the course and in furtherance of the conspiracy. The contents of the statement may be considered sufficient but are alone not sufficient to establish: the declarant's authority under subsection iii.; the agency or employment relationship and scope thereof under subsection iv. above; or the existence of the conspiracy and the participation therein of the declarant and the party against whom the statement is offered under subsection v. above. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Hearsay exceptions where the declarant's testimony is necessary. The following hearsay statements are admissible, but only if the declarant testifies at the trial/hearing and is subject to cross-examination regarding the prior statement. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Prior inconsistent statement of a declarant-witness. A prior statement by the declarant that is inconsistent with the declarant's testimony and that: was given under oath subject to penalty of perjury at a trial, hearing, or other proceeding or in a deposition; is a writing signed and adopted by the declarant; or is a verbatim contemporaneous electronic, audiotaped, or videotaped recording of an oral statement, is admissible. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Prior statement of identification by a declarant-witness. A prior statement of identification by a declarant-witness of a person or thing, made after perceiving the person or thing, is admissible provided the declarant-witness testifies to the making of the prior identification. <input type="checkbox"/> c. Recorded recollection of declarant-witness. <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Hearsay within hearsay (layered hearsay). Hearsay included within hearsay is not to be excluded under the hearsay rule as long as each part of the combined statements conforms to an exception provided in the Rules of Evidence.	Pa.R.E. 805.
<input type="checkbox"/> 6. Attacking/supporting a declarant's credibility. When a hearsay statement is admitted into evidence, the credibility of the declarant may be attacked and, if attacked, supported by any evidence that would have been admissible for that purpose if the declarant had testified as a witness. Evidence of a statement or conduct of the declarant at any time which is inconsistent with the hearsay statement, is not subject to any requirement that the declarant may have been given the opportunity to deny or explain. If the party against whom the hearsay has been admitted calls the declarant as a witness, the party is entitled to examine the declarant on the statement as if under cross-examination.	Pa.R.E. 806. Note: Credibility is not an issue at a preliminary hearing. Liciaga v. CCP of Lehigh County, 566 A.2d 246, 248 (Pa. 1989) (MDJ precluded from considering credibility of a witness at a preliminary hearing); Commonwealth v. Fox, 619 A.2d 327, 332 (Pa. Super. 1993) (MDJ may limit cross-examination at preliminary hearing regarding credibility).
<input type="checkbox"/> 7. Preliminary hearing: hearsay admissible. Hearsay evidence shall be considered by the MDJ in determining whether a prima facie case has been established. "Hearsay evidence shall be sufficient to establish any element of an offense requiring proof of the ownership of, non-permitted use of, damage to, or value of property."	Pa.R.Crim.P. 542(E).

G. AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION

Generally, an item that is offered into evidence must be authenticated by evidence other than the item itself to establish a connection between it and the parties and events of the litigation. Commonwealth v. Pollock, 606 A.2d 500, 506 (Pa. Super. 1992). Checklist 10-9 below discusses the means of authenticating and identifying evidence.

Checklist 10-9: Authentication and Identification	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Requirement of authentication or identification. <input type="checkbox"/> a. General rule. Unless stipulated, to authenticate or identify an item the proponent must produce evidence sufficient to support a finding that the item is what it claims it to be.	Pa.R.E. 901. Pa.R.E. 901(a).

<input type="checkbox"/> b. Examples. The following examples are intended to illustrate proper methods of authentication and identification and are not meant to be exhaustive:	Pa.R.E. 901(b).
<input type="checkbox"/> i. Testimony of a witness with knowledge that the matter is what it is claimed to be.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(1).
<input type="checkbox"/> ii. Non-expert opinion on handwriting. Non-expert opinion testimony as to the genuineness of handwriting, based on familiarity that is not acquired solely for the purposes of litigation.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(2).
<input type="checkbox"/> iii. Comparison by the trier of fact or expert witness. Comparison by the MDJ or by expert witnesses with specimens that have been authenticated.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(3).
<input type="checkbox"/> iv. Distinctive characteristics. Appearance, contents, substance, internal patterns, or other distinctive characteristics, taken in conjunction with the circumstances.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(4).
<input type="checkbox"/> v. Voice identification. Identification of a voice, whether heard firsthand or through mechanical or electronic transmission or recording, by opinion based upon hearing the voice at any time under circumstances connecting it to the alleged speaker.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(5).
<input type="checkbox"/> vi. Telephone conversations. Telephone conversations may be authenticated or identified by evidence that a call was made to the number assigned at the time to a particular person or business by the telephone company if, in the case of a person, circumstances including self-identification, show the person answering to be the one called, or, in the case of a business, the call was made to a business and the conversation related to business reasonably transacted over the phone.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(6).

<input type="checkbox"/> vii. Public records/reports. Evidence that: a document was recorded or filed in a public office as authorized by law; or a purported public record or statement is from a public office where items of this nature are kept. <input type="checkbox"/> viii. Ancient documents or data compilation. Evidence that a document or data compilation in any form is in such condition as to create no suspicion about its authenticity and was in a place where it would likely be if it was authentic, and has been in existence 30 years or more at the time it is offered. <input type="checkbox"/> ix. Process or systems. Evidence describing a process or system used to produce a result and showing that the process or system produces an accurate result. <input type="checkbox"/> x. Any other method provided by law. <input type="checkbox"/> xi. Digital evidence. What is required to connect digital evidence to a person or entity? (1) Direct evidence such as testimony of an individual with personal knowledge; or (2) circumstantial evidence such as "identifying content or proof of ownership, possession, control, or access to a device or account at the relevant time when corroborated by circumstances indicating authorship." Digital evidence includes "a communication, statement, or image existing in an electronic medium. This includes emails, text messages, social media postings, and images." The proponent is not required to prove that no one else could be the author, but must produce sufficient evidence to support a finding that a particular person or entity was the author.	Pa.R.E. 901(b)(7). Note: Some public records are self-authenticating per Pa.R.E. 902 (see Checklist 10-9(2) below). Pa.R.E. 901(b)(8). Pa.R.E. 901(b)(9). Pa.R.E. 901(b)(10). Pa.R.E. 901(b)(11). Comment to Pa.R.E. 901. Comment to Pa.R.E. 901.

Direct evidence can include an admission by a party-opponent and expert testimony. Circumstantial evidence of content may be sufficient to connect the digital evidence to its author. Circumstantial evidence may include self-identification or other distinctive characteristics, including a display of knowledge only possessed by the author. Circumstantial evidence of ownership, possession, control, or access to a device or account alone is insufficient for authentication of authorship. This evidence is, however, probative of the author's identity in combination with other evidence.	Comment to Pa.R.E. 901. Comment to Pa.R.E. 901. Comment to Pa.R.E. 901. Comment to Pa.R.E. 901.

Domestic public documents under seal. A document bearing a seal purporting to be that of the United States or any state, territory, district, Commonwealth, etc., thereof or a political subdivision of same, and that also contains a signature purporting to be an attestation or execution. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Domestic public documents not under seal. Documents purporting to bear the signature of an officer or employee (in his/her official capacity) of any entity described in Pa.R.E. 902(1)(A) without a seal, if a public officer having a seal and official duties in the district or political subdivision of the officer or employee	Pa.R.E. 902. Note: Even though evidence is admitted through this rule, an opposing party may still contest its authenticity. Documents purporting to be executed/attested in an official capacity by a person authorized by the laws of a foreign country to do so which are accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position of the executing/attesting person (or of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the execution or attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the execution or attestation) are considered to be self-authenticated. Final certification may be made by a secretary of an embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of official documents, the court may, for good cause shown, order that they be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification, or permit them to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification. □ d. Certified copies of public records. A copy of an official record or report, or an entry within same, or of any document authorized to be recorded or filed and actually is recorded or filed in a public office. This definition includes data compilations certified as correct by the custodian or other person authorized to make the certification, by way of a certificate complying with Pa.R.E. 902(1), (2), or (3), or any statute or Supreme Court rule. E-signature; seal. Inscriptions, signs, tags, or labels purporting to have been affixed in the course of business that indicate ownership, control, or origin. <input type="checkbox"/> h. Acknowledged documents. Documents that are accompanied by a certificate of acknowledgment executed in the manner provided by law by a notary public or other officer legally authorized to take such acknowledgments. <input type="checkbox"/> i. Commercial paper and related documents. Commercial paper, the signatures on it, and documents relating to it, to the extent allowed by general commercial law. <input type="checkbox"/> j. Statutory presumptions. Any signature, document or other matter that is declared by statute to be presumptively or prima facie genuine or authentic. <input type="checkbox"/> k. Certified domestic records of regularly conducted activity. The original or a copy of a domestic record of a regularly conducted activity that would be admissible under Pa.R.E. 803(6) (see Checklist 10-8(1)(e) above) as shown by a written certification of authenticity of its custodian or other qualified person, that is verified as provided in Pa.R.Civ. P. 76. H. CONTENTS OF WRITINGS, RECORDINGS, AND PHOTOGRAPHS

Writings, recordings, and photographs have special rules governing their admissibility. Writings are letters, words, or numbers, or their equivalent, set down in any form. Pa.R.E. 1001(a). Recordings are letters, words, or numbers, or their equivalent, recorded in any manner. Pa.R.E. 1001(b). Photographs are photographic images, or their equivalent, stored in any form. Pa.R.E. 1001(c). Checklist 10-10 outlines the requirements concerning writings, recordings and photographs.

Checklist 10-10: Content of Writings, Recordings, and Photographs	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Requirement of original writing, recording, or photograph. To prove the content of a writing, recording or photograph, the original is required, except as provided in other Supreme Court rules or statute. <input type="checkbox"/> a. "Original" defined. "An 'original' of a writing or recording means the writing or recording itself or any counterpart intended to have the same effect by a person who executed or issued it. For electronically stored information, 'original' means any printout—or other output readable by sight—if it accurately reflects the information. An 'original' of a photograph includes the negative or a print from it." <input type="checkbox"/> b. Best Evidence Rule. Generally, if the contents of a writing are at issue, the original must be produced unless it is unavailable through no fault of the party seeking to admit it. Asked and answered	102, 611(a)	10-5(3)(a)	Direct counsel to move on. Such a question may be acceptable on cross-examination.
Assumes a fact not in evidence (question contains or assumes a fact that has not been admitted into evidence)	611(a)	10-5(3)(a)	Direct counsel to rephrase the question.
Authentication lacking	901	10-9	Do not admit unless it fits an exception, is self-authenticating (Checklist 10-9(2)), or authenticity has been stipulated to.
Best Evidence Rule (original document required)	1002	10-10	Do not admit unless it fits an exception.
Beyond scope of direct/cross examination	611(b)	10-5(3)(b)	Do not permit question.
Character evidence--improper	405	10-2(5)	If the means of attacking the witness's character is not proper under the rules it should not be permitted.
Compound question (more than one question is being asked at the same time)	611(a)	10-5(3)(a)	Direct counsel to rephrase the question.
Conclusion (witness is being asked to draw a conclusion)	602, 701	10-4(3), 10-7(1)	Direct counsel to rephrase the question or do not permit the question.
Confusing	611(a)	10-5(3)(a)	Direct counsel to rephrase the question.
Cumulative (repetitive, unnecessary, and/or time wasting)	102, 611(a)	10-5(3)(a)	Do not permit the question and ask counsel to move on.
Foundation not established (no proper foundation for testimony or exhibit, no authentication, chain of custody, or personal knowledge)	602, 901	10-4(3), 10-9	Direct counsel to lay proper foundation.
Hearsay (a statement made out of court is being offered to prove the truth of the matter asserted. Need to determine if an exception makes it admissible)	801, 802, 803, 803.1, 804, 805, 806	10-8	If question asks for hearsay, do not permit it unless it fits an exception discussed in Checklist 10-8. Hearsay may be permitted in a preliminary hearing, see Checklist 10-8(7).

Leading the witness (the question suggests an answer. Leading questions should usually be permitted on cross-examination or on direct examination if the witness is being treated as hostile)	611(c)	10-5(3)(c)	Do not permit such questions. Direct counsel to rephrase the question.
Misquoting witness (counsel's question misstates the prior testimony)	103	10-1(1)	Do not permit the question.
Narrative (the question is phrased in such an open-ended manner as to allow the witness to present an unfocused answer that might contain inadmissible testimony or the witness supplies such an answer)	611	10-5(3)	May direct counsel to rephrase the question.
Non-responsive answer (the witness's answer does not respond to the question asked)	611	10-5(3)(a)	Direct the witness to answer the question.
Opinion (the question calls for impermissible opinion from the witness)	701, 702, 703, 704	10-7	Do not permit the question. Require proper foundation.
Prejudice (the evidence's probative value is outweighed by its potential for unfair prejudice, confusion of issues, misleading, undue delay, or repetition. Prejudice or misleading of fact finder are less of a concern in proceedings before MDJs as there is no jury)	403	10-2(3)	Do not permit the evidence.
Privilege (question seeks privileged information. Determine if the applicable statute contains an exception)	501	10-3	Do not permit the question or allow the physical evidence that violates the privilege.
Speculation (question requires a witness to speculate or conjecture because he/she lacks personal knowledge)	602, 701	10-4(3), 10-7(1)	Do not permit the question.

XI. MISCELLANEOUS

A. OATHS AND AFFIRMATIONS

1. Introduction

Oaths and affirmations administered by an MDJ take two forms: judicial oaths/affirmations and oaths/affirmations of office. A judicial oath is administered in a court proceeding to affirm the truth of the information to be asserted by a witness. Pa.R.E. 603. An oath/affirmation of office is a prerequisite for an official to exercise the powers of the office to which he/she is elected or appointed. Pa.Const. Art. VI, § 3 (refusal to take oath/affirmation shall result in forfeiture of the office).

2. Judicial Oaths/Affirmations

A judicial oath is one that is administered in a court proceeding to affirm the truth of the information to be asserted by a witness. Pa.R.E. 603. The person making the oath implicitly invites punishment in the form of a perjury charge if a statement made under oath is false. See e.g., 18 Pa.C.S. § 4902 (making false statement under oath/affirmation or swearing/affirming the truth of a previous statement when the statement is material and the maker does not believe it to be true). Perjury is a third degree felony. Id. In addition, error may result if a testifying witness is not given the oath/affirmation. See Dunsmore v. Dunsmore, 455 A.2d 723, 724 (Pa. Super. 1983) (finding error in court's failure to administer oath to father in custody action as father's status as an attorney entitled him to no special consideration).

In situations where young children are testifying, their competence to testify may be challenged. Pa.R.E. 601(b)(4). In this situation, the MDJ may have to conduct questioning also known as a voir dire examination to determine if the witness has sufficient capacity to communicate, observe, and remember, and whether he/she is conscious of the duty to speak the truth. Commonwealth v. Washington, 722 A.2d 643, 646 (Pa. 1998). The voir dire of child witnesses is discussed in Evidence (Section X).

Checklist 11-1: Judicial Oath/Affirmation	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Judicial oath--statutory language. The statute requires that prior to giving testimony, every witness

take an oath in the usual and common form, by laying a hand upon a bible and/or lifting his/her right hand and pronouncing or assenting: "I, A.B., do swear by almighty God, the searcher of all hearts, that I will [testify truthfully], and that as I shall answer to God at the last great day." The foregoing language, which dates to the 1700s, need not be used, and in fact is seldom used today. The oath/affirmation used shall require the witness to declare that he/she will testify truthfully and be administered in a form designed to impress upon the witness's conscience the duty to testify truthfully. As a result, many variations of judicial oaths may exist that comport with the basic requirements of Pa.R.E. 603. An example of one such oath is: "Please stand and place your right hand on the bible. Please state your full name and spell your last name. Do you swear that the testimony you are about to give the court in this matter will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God? You may be seated." <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Judicial affirmation. A witness need not take an oath but may instead be administered an affirmation which shall have the same effect and consequences as the oath (i.e., perjury). Any witness who desires to affirm shall be permitted to do so. As with judicial oaths, judicial affirmations need not follow one particular form, but the affirmation administered shall require the witness to declare that he/she will testify truthfully and be administered in a form designed to impress upon the witness's conscience the duty to testify truthfully. An example of such an affirmation is: "Do you honestly, sincerely and truthfully declare the testimony you are about to give the Court in this matter will be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, so you do affirm?"	42 Pa.C.S. § 5901(a). Pa.R.E. 603. 42 Pa.C.S. § 5901(b). Pa.R.E. 603.

<input type="checkbox"/> 3. Interpreter oath/affirmation. Oaths/affirmations are also to be administered to interpreters pursuant to Pa.R.E. 603 to ensure that they will make a true interpretation. Before commencing interpreter duties, the interpreter should take the following oath/affirmation set forth in the administrative regulations governing the Interpreter Certification Program: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm that you will make an accurate, complete and impartial interpretation from the English language into the (target language), and vice-versa, of any communication put through you using your best skill, judgment and ability, and that you will abide by the Rules of Conduct and Professional Responsibility for judiciary interpreters, and so you do swear or affirm?"	Pa.R.E. 603. 204 Pa.Code. § 106. Note: A copy of the administrative regulations and the Rules of Conduct and Professional Responsibility for Judiciary Interpreters can be found on the Interpreter Certification website: http://www.pacourts.us/judicial-administration/court-programs/interpreter-program.

3. Oaths/Affirmations of Office for Local Officials

In addition to judicial oaths/affirmations, MDJs may also be asked to administer oaths/affirmations of office to local officials.

Checklist 11-2: Oaths/Affirmations of Office	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Form oath/affirmation. The form oath/affirmation of office is derived from the Pennsylvania Constitution and it states: "I (name of person) do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth and that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity." <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Municipal officials. Although the constitutional and statutory provisions cited above only refer specifically to state and county officials, the same oath/affirmation can be used to swear in municipal officials as well. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Filing of the oath/affirmation. An oath/affirmation administered to a county official is filed subsequently in	Pa. Const. Art. VI, § 3; 16 P.S. § 403. 53 Pa.C.S. § 1141; see e.g., 8 Pa.C.S. § 10A03 (providing MDJs the power to administer oaths/affirmations of mayor of a borough). 16 P.S. § 403(b).

the office of the prothonotary for the county in which it was administered. An oath/affirmation administered to a municipal official will typically be filed with the secretary of the municipality.	See e.g., 8 Pa.C.S. § 10A03.

B. MARRIAGE CEREMONY

1. Introduction

Among the powers of an MDJ is the power to solemnize marriages by performing a marriage ceremony. 23 Pa.C.S. § 1503(a)(1) & (2). Pennsylvania statutes do not prescribe a specific form that a marriage ceremony must take. The essential first step is that the parties obtain a marriage license. 23 Pa.C.S. §§ 1301(a); 1503(c). The parties obtain a license by application, which is typically made to the clerk of the orphans' court. 23 Pa.C.S. § 1302 (discussing the application for a marriage license).

2. Marriage Ceremony

Checklist 11-3: Marriage Ceremony	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. License. Before the MDJ performs the marriage ceremony, he/she shall first determine that the parties seeking to be married have obtained a valid marriage license. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Form of the license. The MDJ should examine the license to determine if it is properly signed and sealed by the issuing court. In addition, the license should have attached to it two certificates, one marked "original" and one marked "duplicate" that state: "I hereby certify that on (date), at (city, borough or town), Pennsylvania, (name) and (name) were by me united in marriage, in accordance with license issued by the court of common pleas of (name) numbered Signed (Title of person solemnizing marriage)	See 23 Pa.C.S. § 1503(c) (stating that a license is necessary before ceremony can be performed). 23 Pa.C.S. § 1310. 23 Pa.C.S. § 1501.

There is no specified form a marriage ceremony must take "but it must be evinced by words said in the present tense, articulated with the purpose of forming a spousal relationship." <input type="checkbox"/> c. Sample ceremony and ring exchange. As mentioned previously, there is no prescribed marriage ceremony and thus the MDJ and the parties have great leeway in formulating it. The following short sample is provided for illustrative purposes only and is not legally mandated. MDJ: "We are gathered together in the presence of this company, to join together this man and this woman in matrimony, which is to be honored among all people and is not to be entered into lightly." [Audience is seated] MDJ: "(Groom), will you take this woman to be your wife, to live together in the covenant of marriage? C. INTERPRETERS

If a principal party in interest or a witness has a limited ability to speak or understand English or is deaf or hard of hearing and requests an interpreter, or the MDJ determines that a principal party in interest or witness has a limited ability to speak or understand English or is deaf or hard of hearing, he/shall appoint an interpreter. 42 Pa.C.S. § 4412, 4432. One important aspect of the court interpreter laws is that there are certain standards and procedures that must be followed. Checklist 11-4 outlines the important features of the laws requiring appointment of interpreters. The Interpreter Certification Program (ICP) website, <http://www.pacourts.us/judicial-administration/court-programs/interpreter-program>, contains important information on interpreters including interpreter request and waiver forms, a bench card for working with interpreters, and bilingual forms.

Checklist 11-4: Court Interpreters	Authority/Notes
<input type="checkbox"/> 1. Who is entitled to a court interpreter? Any principal party in interest or witness who has limited English proficiency or who is deaf or hard of hearing is entitled to an interpreter as provided in 42 Pa.C.S. § 4401 et seq. and the Rules of Judicial Administration.	42 Pa.C.S. §§ 4412 & 4432.
<input type="checkbox"/> 2. When are they entitled to a court interpreter? The aforementioned persons are entitled to a court interpreter at any judicial proceeding. A judicial proceeding is defined as "[a]n action, appeal or proceeding in any court of this Commonwealth."	42 Pa.C.S. § 4402.
<input type="checkbox"/> 3. MDJ's responsibilities. Once the need for an interpreter has become apparent, a certified interpreter must be obtained, a process that may require some time depending on the circumstances. Therefore, the MDJ should contact the court administrator's office for the judicial district as soon as he/she becomes aware of the need for an interpreter. The court administrator's office can then obtain an interpreter in the manner prescribed by the interpreter statutes and the Rules of Judicial Administration.	42 Pa.C.S. § 4401 et seq. Note: The ICP website contains detailed information on finding an interpreter and voir dire questions for determining the need for an interpreter and for ascertaining the prospective interpreter's qualifications.
<input type="checkbox"/> 4. Appointment of the interpreter. Once an interpreter has been obtained, the MDJ shall appoint him/her by administering the oath set forth in Checklist 11-1(3).	42 Pa.C.S. §§ 4414 & 4435. Note: The interpreter oath is also contained in §106 of the administrative regulations on the ICP website.

<input type="checkbox"/> 5. Interpreter's role. The interpreter's role is to render an accurate and complete interpretation without omitting anything or interjecting their own words. <input type="checkbox"/> 6. Rules of Conduct and Professional Responsibility. The interpreter must be familiar with and abide by the Rules of Conduct and Professional Responsibility for Judiciary Interpreters. <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Confidentiality. An interpreter cannot be compelled to testify as to any statements made by the person with LEP or person who is deaf or hard of hearing interpreted by the interpreter when the speaker is engaged in a confidential communication as provided by statute or general rule.	Note: Schedule F of the administrative regulations on the ICP website contains the Rules of Conduct. 42 Pa.C.S. §§ 4415 & 4436.

D. OFFICIAL SEAL AND FACSIMILE SEAL

Every magisterial district shall have and use a seal which shall be in the custody of the MDJ who has been elected or appointed for that district.

42 Pa.C.S. § 1512; Pa.R.S.M.D.J. 111(A). All official acts of the MDJ shall be authenticated with this seal. Id. The seal itself shall be engraved with the same design as the great seal of Pennsylvania and contain the words "Commonwealth of Pennsylvania," the name of the county, the magisterial district number, and the words "magisterial district judge." Id. In addition, a facsimile or pre-printed seal can be used for all purposes in place of the original seal. Id.; Pa.R.S.M.D.J. 111(B). A facsimile seal is an exact copy of the original seal. See BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY (10th ed. 2014) (defining a facsimile as an "exact copy, preserving all marks of the original").

E. SELF-SERVICE STORAGE FACILITIES

The Self-Service Storage Facility Act, 73 P.S. § 1901 et seq., governs the actions the owner of a self-service storage facility may take in the event that the occupant defaults on rent payments. Checklist 11-5 discusses portions of the Act.
